Kennedy Assassination

Controversy Over Shots Fired Reaches New Heights

WASHINGTON (AP) — Controversy over the shots fired during the assassination of President John F. Kennedy reached new heights on this third anniversary of the Dallas tragedy.

Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., and former Kennedy adviser Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr. called for further investigation.

But Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., a member of the Warren Commission, and former Kennedy press aide Malcolm M. Kilduff, while disputing commission findings about the shots, took no issue with the over-all commission conclusion that Lee Harvey Oswald, acting alone, killed Kennedy.

Life magazine, disputing findings about the shots, called in this week's issue for a new investigation. Texas Gov. John B. Connally, wounded during the assassination, was quoted by Life as in positive disagreement with commission findings about the shots.

A spate of recent books has questioned the commission report. This week's newest round of debate is the most concentrated yet by present and past government officials.

Starting point for the new questioning is the commission finding that one bullet wounded both Kennedy and Connally. Some—but not all—of the critics move from here to the question of whether a second person fired at the Kennedy motorcade on that early Dallas afternoon.

Long said in New Orleans Monday he has always thought that a second person was involved.

The assistant Senate Democratic leader, in answer to a newsman's questions, said that although there is no doubt that Oswald played a part in the assassination, "whoever fired that second shot was a much better shot than Oswald."

The commission said three shots were fired. It concluded that one hit Kennedy and Connally, a later shot inflicted the major damage on Kennedy and one shot missed. The commission was unable to conclude which of the three shots missed.

Life quoted Connally as saying after a recent review of amateur films of the events: "There is my absolute knowledge...that one bullet caused the President's first wound, and that an entirely separate shot struck me. It's a certainty. I'll never change my mind."

Kilduff, who was the only White House press aide in Dallas and rode in the motorcade, said he agrees with Connally.

But Kilduff added in a taped television-radio interview with Westinghouse Broadcasting Co.: "I have absolutely no doubt that Lee Harvey Oswald committed the act on his own and that there was no conspiracy involved, as has been insinuated in many books, and is a belief which is actually widespread in Europe."

Russell said in an interview with the Atlanta (Ga.) Journal

No Report Given On Casualties In Second Skirmish

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. infantrymen tangled with North Vietnamese regulars in two small new fights today in the central highlands north of the battlefield on which U.S. air cavalrymen took heavy casualties Monday.

Units of the 25th Division skirmished with the North Vietnamese 12 miles southwest of the U.S. Special Forces camp at Plei Djering and 13 miles northwest of the Green Beret camp. Three North Vietnamese were reported killed in the first clash. There was no word of casualties in the other.

A U.S. military spokesman said the North Vietnamese inflicted heavy casualties on a three-platoon force of about 105 men of the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile, Division in Monday's fighting 22 miles southwest of Plei Djering.

The spokesman said one platoon — about 35 men — was overrun and took the brunt of the casualties. He would not comment on reports that there were only three survivors in the platoon. U.S. military officials consistently refuse to give specific casualty figures in any action on grounds of security.

The cavalrymen reported killing 102 North Vietnamese with the aid of air strikes and artillery. The North Vietnamese force was estimated at a battalion of about 500 men in all, and the force that overran the cavalry platoon was reported to be 150 to 200 men.

U.S. B52 bombers roared over the Plei Djering area today in support of the 25th and 1st Cavalry divisions and dropped their bombs on a North Vietnamese staging area 17 miles west of the Special Forces camp.

Reflects Moscow-Peking Feud

Soviet Aid 'Lukewarm' For Red China U.N. Seat

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The feud between Moscow and Peking is reflected in the lukewarm support the Soviet Union is giving to the current attempt to seat Red China in the United Nations.

Following loud demands by Albania and African radicals to throw the Chinese Nationalists out and give their seat to the Communist mainland regime, the Soviet appeal Monday seemed almost perfunctory.

In a 10-minute speech to the General Assembly, Soviet Ambassador Nikolai T. Fedorenko rejectd a proposed committee study of the question for the next year and turned down the idea of settling the 16-year-old question by seating both Chinas.

Fedorenko gave token support to the argument that the Peking regime alone has the right to represent China in the United Nations but omitted the usual praise of the mainland government.

The Soviets have never been reticent before about repeating the same arguments in detail year after year. Their apathetic attitude during the current China debate and their failure to cosponsor the resolution to seat Peking was seen as a clear reflection of the increasing bitterness in Soviet-Chinese relations.

Delegates also noted the brevity of U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg's speech and the fact that it focussed on keeping Nationalist China in the United Nations rather than barring Red China.

Goldberg's acceptance of the idea of a committee study in his 20-minute address was seen as a shift in American policy. The proposal has been viewed as a long-range maneuver to eventually seat both Chinas.

Britain, France, the Soviet Union and Nationalist China, the other members with big power status in the United Nations have all made clear they see no point in such a study group. So have a number of the African nations.

Italy, which introduced the proposal, indicated that it was picking up support, however. Belgium, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile and Trinidad and Tobago cosponsored the resolution.

Simon Move Could Ease Crucible Steel's Merger

The resignation of Norton Simon, chairman of the Crucible Steel Co. finance committee, from the board of the Wheeling Steel Corp. may clear the way for eventual merger of the two steel firms, insiders in the steel industry said today.

Simon, chairman of the finance committee of Hunt Foods & Industries Inc., resigned as Wheeling Steel chairman and director during a special board meeting Sunday in California.

Robert M. Morris, president of Wheeling Steel, said Gustave Levy, partner in a New York investment concern, was named to replace Simon.

Simon joined the Wheeling board after Hunt Foods brought large blocks of Wheeling stock in 1962-63, and brought about a number of board changes.

Simon said yesterday conditions with the steel firm's management and financing are now different from when he first joined it.

He said the nature of Wheeling's problems have now been changed and the current financial need and long - range financial requirements are areas to which Mr. Levy's talents are well adapted.

Wheeling, plagued for some time with sharp losses, may be heading into the black. Simon pointed out "slight profitability shown in the past three months suggests the degree to which the new management is meeting and overcoming inherited problems."

Hunt Foods also owns more than 16 per cent of Crucible's common stock.

By resigning from Wheeling, Simon avoids possible charges of interlocking directorates should the two companies merge.

Both Wheeling and Crucible officials have said in the past a merger possibility has been discussed, but the move has been rejected for the present as impractical.

Action on a merger is unlikely in the immediate future, since Crucible is currently involved in a court struggle with a group of stockholders which has forced postponement of the annual Crucible stockholders meeting.

The Illinois Supreme Court is expected to hear arguments some time before the end of the current session at Springfield next week. A decision is not expected from the court until the January term of court.

The issue at present is whether the Illinois Court has jurisdiction over the case since Crucible is a New Jersey - based corporation.

The dissident stockholders, headed by Morris J. Rubin, are seeking control of Crucible and claim management has sought to perpetuate itself by inducing Simon to acquire large blocks of stock last January.

Franco Seeks To End Spain Dictatorship

MADRID (AP) — Gen. Francisco Franco asked all adult Spaniards today to approve changes in the national organic laws which could help end the 27-year-old dictatorship of Spain.

The aging Franco—he will be 74 Dec. 4—drove through double lines of troops in gala uniforms to present to an extraordinary session of the Spanish Cortes — Parliament — a long-awaited program oriented toward liberalization of future Spanish regimes.

Vanport Plant Mishap Hurts Industry Man

BEAVER — A 29 - year - old Industry man and two fellow workers from Aliquippa and Beaver Falls were injured seriously Monday in the collapse of a piece of equipment which they were installing in an addition at the Westinghouse Corp.'s Standard Controls Division plant at adjoining Vanport.

Edwin Hill of 803 Allison Dr., Industry, Kenneth Sohn, 39, of 3317 Heights Rd., Aliquippa, and Don McBride, 39, of 105 Pinecrest Dr., Beaver Falls, all are in "guarded" condition today at Rochester General Hospital with multiple injuries suffered in the mishap just before noon yesterday.

The three are employes of the Mill Creek Electric Co. at Fallston, which holds a contract for the plant addition.

Don Schulcheis, manager of the Fallston firm, said the men were working on installation of a cab device which moves both horizontally and vertically to reach parts bins. The cab device was about 30 feet in the air when a cable supporting it apparently broke, according to Schulcheis. The frame of the cab twisted, preventing a safety catch from operating, and the cab fell to the concrete floor.

Sohn, who had been working atop the cab, was trapped in the twisted metal. He was freed with cutting torches.

Fire Destroys 2-Story Home At Wellsville

Children playing with matches were blamed for a Monday afternoon fire in Wellsville which destroyed a home on Lisbon St. occupied by a family of seven.

The two-story, frame home was the residence of Thomas Peterson, 42, his wife, and five children, whose ages range from four to 11.

The alarm was received at 4:40 p.m. and was answered by three units of the Wellsville Fire Department, with 16 men. Damage estimates included $5,000 to the building and $1,500 for contents. The building, owned by Chalmer Nicholson of 200 Lisbon St., was covered by insurance, but there was no coverage on the contents, it was reported.

A 4-year-old child living in the home was rescued by his father from the second floor of the building. The tot was uninjured, but his hair was singed from the flames. He or his brothers and sisters had apparently been playing either with matches or a cigarette lighter and ignited combustible material in the upstairs section of the home. It has not yet been determined what caught on fire and started the blaze, firemen said.

There were no other injuries.

Death Takes Ex-Governor Lawrence, 77

Prominent Figure Among Democrats For Many Years

Lawrence, who died Monday at the age of 77, spent his political career spotlighted in Pennsylvania as four-term mayor of Pittsburgh and state governor.

I regarded Gov. Lawrence as one of the last of the major political forces in the Democratic party and a force for good," said Truman.

Lawrence was credited with helping propel Truman from political obscurity into the vice presidential nomination in 1944.

A dozen years before Lawrence had been one of the engineers of the nomination of Roosevelt as president.

President Johnson called him a "personal friend and adviser" and said, "A generation does not produce many such leaders as Gov. Lawrence."

Hearings Postponed In Hancock Charges

Hearings involving three persons arrested at the J & L Bar on West Virginia Route 2 south of New Cumberland Saturday by Hancock County sheriff's deputies have been continued for a week until next Monday by Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

James A. Gibson, 44, of New Cumberland R. D. 1, the licensee, has been charged with illegal possession of alcoholic liquor; Paula J. LeMaster, 18, a waitress, no address listed, with selling alcoholic beverages, and George Messer Jr., 18, of Weirton with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

All have posted bond.

Cases involving two juveniles in the club also will be heard next Monday. The two are now in the custody of their parents.

At Youngstown, Hubbard

Teacher Strike Enters 2nd Day

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—More than 40,000 public school pupils in Youngstown and nearby Hubbard were without classes again today as Ohio's first teacher strike entered its second day.

Teachers who are not members of the striking Youngstown and Hubbard locals of the American Federation of Teachers reported at the schools but school officials in both communities advised the pupils to stay at home.

School bus drivers and truck drivers who make deliveries to the schools continued to respect the striking teachers' picket lines at the 44 schools here and the four in Hubbard.

A bargaining session between the Youngstown Federation of Teachers and the city Board of Education ended at 3 a.m. today with no progress report toward settling a collective bargaining dispute. No further meetings were scheduled today.

Negotiations broke down Monday between the Hubbard Federation of Teachers and the school board in that community. The federation is asking a wage increase for the teachers and recognition as bargaining agent.

The main issue in Youngstown is collective bargaining.

The boards of education in Youngstown and Hubbard now recognize the Youngtown and Hubbard education associations as bargaining agents.

The Youngstown Board of Education agreed Monday to a collective bargaining election on or before Dec. 16, but added that supervisory personnel, such as principals and administrators should be allowed to vote.

The YFT disagreed and said the board's resolution should exclude supervisory personnel. Until that demand is met, a YFT spokesman said the strike would continue.

Present bargaining agents for the YFT and HFT, respectively, are the Youngstown Education Association and the Hubbard Education Association. Both bargaining agents were designated

In Council Appearance

Firemen, Police Request 20 Per Cent Wage Raises

Police and firemen asked Council Monday night for 20 per cent wage increases, plus "fringe benefits" that would include longer vacations and higher uniform allowances.

Representatives of both departments, appearing separately before Council in a caucus session, emphasized that the requests were filed for consideration before the 1967 appropriation ordinance is enacted. Council took a stand at its Nov. 14 meeting that it would not consider pay boosts for any city department for the balance of 1966.

Both the police and fire department representatives asked 20 per cent hikes, which would raise the base pay of rank-and-file members of the departments from $440 to $528 monthly.

Police said the average monthly rate for patrolmen in Ohio now is $529. Firemen said their counterparts in other Ohio cities average about $550.

Steubenville Man, 36, Dies Of Auto Injuries

WEIRTON — A Steubenville pedestrian struck by a car Monday morning on Half Moon Road died of multiple injuries at 2:30 p. m. at Presbyterian Hospital in Pittsburgh, where he had been taken after receiving emergency treatment at Weirton General Hospital.

He was Lawrence A. Settlers, 36, of 810 Barclay Ave.

Mr. Settlers was on his way to work at the Fort Steuben Metal Corp. when the mishap occurred about 6:30. The driver of the car was Robert W. Coulter, 40, also of Steubenville.

Stanton Local Drivers Stay Out On Strike

Board Explains Its Position In Battle For Pay Increase

Stanton Local School District bus drivers continued their strike this morning for higher wages as attendance figures at the four district schools remained very low, only 35 per cent in some cases.

The eight bus drivers refused to leave the board of education's Irondale garage Monday morning, citing the board's refusal to grant salary increases as their reason.

This morning, Stanton Local Supt. C. P. Henderson was authorized by the board to issue this statement:

"In November of 1965, the board of education granted the bus drivers a 30 per cent pay increase. In September of 1966 they (the bus drivers) demanded an additional 15 per cent increase, which is contrary to board policy of not granting two pay increases within one year. The present salaries of bus drivers on an hourly basis is the best in Jefferson County. Their average hourly wage is $3.35 per hour, five cents above the union scale for truck drivers. Our cost of transportation per mile traveled and per pupil transported is the highest in Jefferson County."

Kennedy Assassination

Controversy Over Shots Fired Reaches New Heights

WASHINGTON (AP) — Controversy over the shots fired during the assassination of President John F. Kennedy reached new heights on this third anniversary of the Dallas tragedy.

Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., and former Kennedy adviser Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr. called for further investigation.

But Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., a member of the Warren Commission, and former Kennedy press aide Malcolm M. Kilduff, while disputing commission findings about the shots, took no issue with the over-all commission conclusion that Lee Harvey Oswald, acting alone, killed Kennedy.

Life magazine, disputing findings about the shots, called in this week's issue for a new investigation. Texas Gov. John B. Connally, wounded during the assassination, was quoted by Life as in positive disagreement with commission findings about the shots.

A spate of recent books has questioned the commission report. This week's newest round of debate is the most concentrated yet by present and past government officials.

Teacher Strike Enters 2nd Day

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—More than 40,000 public school pupils in Youngstown and nearby Hubbard were without classes again today as Ohio's first teacher strike entered its second day.

Teachers who are not members of the striking Youngstown and Hubbard locals of the American Federation of Teachers reported at the schools but school officials in both communities advised the pupils to stay at home.

School bus drivers and truck drivers who make deliveries to the schools continued to respect the striking teachers' picket lines at the 44 schools here and the four in Hubbard.

A bargaining session between the Youngstown Federation of Teachers and the city Board of Education ended at 3 a.m. today with no progress report toward settling a collective bargaining dispute. No further meetings were scheduled today.

Negotiations broke down Monday between the Hubbard Federation of Teachers and the school board in that community. The federation is asking a wage increase for the teachers and recognition as bargaining agent.

The main issue in Youngstown is collective bargaining.

The boards of education in Youngstown and Hubbard now recognize the Youngtown and Hubbard education associations as bargaining agents.

The Youngstown Board of Education agreed Monday to a collective bargaining election on or before Dec. 16, but added that supervisory personnel, such as principals and administrators should be allowed to vote.

The YFT disagreed and said the board's resolution should exclude supervisory personnel. Until that demand is met, a YFT spokesman said the strike would continue.

Present bargaining agents for the YFT and HFT, respectively, are the Youngstown Education Association and the Hubbard Education Association. Both bargaining agents were designated

In Council Appearance

Firemen, Police Request 20 Per Cent Wage Raises

Police and firemen asked Council Monday night for 20 per cent wage increases, plus "fringe benefits" that would include longer vacations and higher uniform allowances.

Representatives of both departments, appearing separately before Council in a caucus session, emphasized that the requests were filed for consideration before the 1967 appropriation ordinance is enacted. Council took a stand at its Nov. 14 meeting that it would not consider pay boosts for any city department for the balance of 1966.

Both the police and fire department representatives asked 20 per cent hikes, which would raise the base pay of rank-and-file members of the departments from $440 to $528 monthly.

Police said the average monthly rate for patrolmen in Ohio now is $529. Firemen said their counterparts in other Ohio cities average about $550.

Steubenville Man, 36, Dies Of Auto Injuries

WEIRTON — A Steubenville pedestrian struck by a car Monday morning on Half Moon Road died of multiple injuries at 2:30 p.m. at Presbyterian Hospital in Pittsburgh, where he had been taken after receiving emergency treatment at Weirton General Hospital.

He was Lawrence A. Settlers, 36, of 810 Barclay Ave.

Mr. Settlers was on his way to work at the Fort Steuben Metal Corp. when the mishap occurred about 6:30. The driver of the car was Robert W. Coulter, 40, also of Steubenville.

Stanton Local Drivers Stay Out On Strike

Board Explains Its Position In Battle For Pay Increase

Stanton Local School District bus drivers continued their strike this morning for higher wages as attendance figures at the four district schools remained very low, only 35 per cent in some cases.

The eight bus drivers refused to leave the board of education's Irondale garage Monday morning, citing the board's refusal to grant salary increases as their reason.

This morning, Stanton Local Supt. C. P. Henderson was authorized by the board to issue this statement:

"In November of 1965, the board of education granted the bus drivers a 30 per cent pay increase. In September of 1966 they (the bus drivers) demanded an additional 15 per cent increase, which is contrary to board policy of not granting two pay increases within one year. The present salaries of bus drivers on an hourly basis is the best in Jefferson County. Their average hourly wage is $3.35 per hour, five cents above the union scale for truck drivers. Our cost of transportation per mile traveled and per pupil transported is the highest in Jefferson County."

The non-union bus drivers

Drive Lags, But Leaders Still Hopeful

East Liverpool's United Fund campaign collections now total some $103,000, but drive leaders expressed confidence today the goal of $125,000 will be met.

At a report meeting of campaign leaders and officials of the United Fund organization, James McGowan, campaign chairman, reported $102,996 collected or pledged to date.

However, some additional funds were reported last night and today.

With the drive within 83 per cent of its goal, McGowan ex-

Various Actions Taken By Board

Frank Melchiorre was named assistant high school basketball coach and Don Charlton was named basketball coach at East Junior High during a meeting of the East Liverpool Board of Education Monday night.

Melchiorre will serve for the coming season. A teacher at East Junior High, where he coached last basketball season, he will receive $400 for his duties.

Charlton, who was football coach at East Junior the past season, will be paid $175 for his coaching work. This is a reduction from the standard $250, but it was pointed out Charlton will be doing post - graduate work and will not be available for scouting duties.

THE BOARD granted leave of absence for two teachers to do student teaching. They are Mrs. Carol Fetty and Miss Doris Christen. They will be absent from the system from Jan. 3 to March 17 to complete this phase of their college work.

The board approved action to obtain a contract with the city fire department for protection at the Glenmoor and LaCroft buildings. Supt. Paul Blair said the two schools are not under the local department's protection because they are outside the city limits. The schools are in the jurisdiction of the Liverpool West and Glenmoor volunteer departments.

The board also will obtain an insurance rider to cover the fee to be paid the city department in event the department is called.

Two rentals were approved. The Kiwanis Club will use Westgate School cafeteria Dec. 3 for a pancake supper. The fee will be $18, plus the costs of the cafeteria help and the custodian.

The Blue and White Nonpareil Club will use the Westgate grounds May 21-27 for a carnival. The club will post $100, which will be returned once the area has been cleaned after the carnival is over, the board pointed out.

The board agreed to pay the Civil Service Commission $262.14 as its share of operating expenses of the commission.

The commission originally asked the board to pay $500. Through negotiations, it was determined to base the fee on the number of employes covered by Civil Service. The municipality has 160 and the school district has 30. The board figured its share on the operating costs of last year. This is the first time the Board of Education has shared in the expenses.

THE BOARD was informed that the court action filed by the Riley Construction Co. of Salem over the awarding of contracts for the new East and LaCroft elementary schools has been carried to the Ohio Supreme Court.

The firm filed a mandamus action in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon, claiming its proposal was the most responsible bid by law. The contract was awarded the Modany Brothers construction firm of Smiths Ferry.

The contract was awarded with the approval of Ohio Department of Education officials. Later the Salem firm and state officials agreed to bypass the local courts and go to Franklin County courts, since the issue involved state action.

The new action was taken to expedite the matter and will be heard in the Ohio Supreme Court.

Carl Pelini, assistant superintendent, informed the board all the materials have been received for establishing a testing center here for persons who want to obtain an high school equivalency certificate. Pelini said further information as to the operation will be announced later.

MRS. DUNLOP thanked Miss Kathryn Liebschner, clerk, for her work, pointing out compliments had been received on the operation of the school records.

Mrs. Dunlop also asked board members to be thinking of the needs of the system and ways of informing the public of the needs. Referring to the defeat of the school levy at the general election, she commented the public must know the needs since "we cannot continue to operate a good school system with low funds."

She also announced the board had selected the type of brick to be used in construction of the new schools. It is a light buff color. Mrs. Dunlop said, and will complement the East Junior High, where an elementary addition is to be constructed. All the schools will be of the same color.

$4,442 Reported In MD Campaign

LISBON — The Columbiana County Muscular Dystrophy chapter has collected $4,442 toward a $8,600 goal, with three areas still to report.

Coin containers will remain in business places throughout the county until Dec. 1. The county chapter last year had a goal of $8,000 and collected $5,400.

He appointed Howard Bauman of Columbiana R. D. 2 secretary to succeed Mrs. James Staley of Columbiana, who resigned because of other commitments.

The next meeting will be Dec. 19 at the VFW post. Members are to take canned goods, baked goods and candy to pack Christmas baskets for three patients.

Harlem Satellites Sign For Game Here Jan. 3

The Harlem Satellites basketball team will appear at Memorial Auditorium Tuesday, Jan. 3, at 8 p.m. in a benefit game sponsored by John Washington Masonic Lodge 92.

Vocal and instrumental music will be featured in the half-time entertainment.

Richard Carter and Orin C. Smith Jr. are co-chairmen on arrangements. They said ticket sales will begin after Thanksgiving.

Pastor Will Deliver Message At Lisbon

LISBON — The Rev. Donald Blom of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church will deliver a Thanksgiving message during the Kiwanis Club luncheon Wednesday noon in the Daughters of America Hall.

John Vokovich is program chairman. President Cornell Monda reminds members a second vice president is to be elected to succeed James Pezzano, resigned. A. Monty Muntean is the nominee.

Deaths and Funerals

Carl Mossor

Carl Denver Mossor, 51, of Liberty Ave., Lawrenceville, was found dead of an apparent heart attack about 7 a. m. today in his auto, parked in a rented garage near his home.

He had apparently driven the car into the garage Monday night. In poor health, Mr. Mossor was to have gone to Pittsburgh today for an examination relative to poor heart circulation.

The gas tank of the auto had been filled last night for the trip and the motor was still running this morning.

Mr. Mossor was born April 27, 1915, in Wick, W. Va., the son of the late William and Rachel Mossor.

He had lived for about 8½ years in Long Beach, Calif., until last October, when he returned to the area.

He had retired as a mill worker while in California due to disability. He was a World War II veteran, a member of the DAV and the Wick Methodist Church.

Survivors include his widow, Helen Bailey Mossor, in Lawrenceville; a son, David Mossor, of Spokane, Wash.; two daughters, Mrs. Frank (Madelyn) Lotzgesselle of Steubenville and Mrs. Ray (Marian) Browne of Bell, Calif.; three step - children, Sgt. Don E. Bailey of Yucca Valley, Calif.; Mrs. George (Zelda) Bowman of Pensacola, Fla., and Mrs. F. J. (Norma) Przybylowicz of Lawton, Okla.; two brothers, Rosmond Mossor of Wick and Russell Mossor of Long Beach, Calif.; three sisters, Mrs. Salem Grimm of Newell and Mrs. Lawrence Baker and Mrs. Olin Groves, both of Middlebourne, W. Va., and 16 grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the Arner Funeral Chapel in Chester, with the Rev. Forrest Campbell of the Chester Methodist Church officiating.

Burial will be at Locust Hill Cemetery, near Chester.

Harry Hutton

Harry W. Hutton, a native of Beaver County, died Monday at 11 a.m. at the Chillicothe Veterans Hospital, where he had been a patient 25 years.

A World War I veteran, he was the son of the late Frank Pearce Hutton and Harriet Smith Hutton. At one time he was a farmer in Hancock County, near Chester. He served in France as a military policeman.

He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Anna Moore of Pughtown, Mrs. Edith Wycoff of Chester and Mrs. Grace Mountford of East Liverpool, and several nephews and nieces.

Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Dawson Funeral Home by the Rev. E. C. Traylor of the First Church of Christ. Burial will be in Locust Hill Cemetery, Chester.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight.

Mrs. Ollie Smith

Mrs. Ollie Smith, 82, of 1845 Lisbon St., widow of George Smith, died Monday at 11:35 a.m. at City Hospital after a long illness. She had made her home with a son, Ralph G. Smith.

Mrs. Smith was born in New Matamoras, Nov. 8, 1884, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John McCullough. She had resided in the vicinity for 60 years and was a member of the St. Clair Ave. Church of Christ. Her husband died Jan. 4, 1944.

She also leaves another son, Blaine Smith; a brother, John Marcus McCullough, and a sister, Mrs. Rose Alexander, all of East Liverpool; three grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Martin Funeral Home by the Rev. Ronald Meecham. Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Friends may call at the funeral home this afternoon and night.

John Lewis

John G. Lewis, 88, of 1920 Clark Ave., Wellsville, a retired wreckmaster for the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., died at home at 6 a. m. today. He had been in failing health several years.

Mr. Lewis was born at Butler, Pa., Aug. 24, 1878, a son of the late John Lewis and Mary Johnson Lewis. He had resided for a time in Jefferson County before moving to Wellsville, where he spent most of his life. He had been employed by the railroad until his retirement in 1945. He was an elder at the Covenant United Presbyterian Church for 50 years and had been a member of the International Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. He was preceded in death May 3, 1966, by his wife, Mrs. Cora J. Mills Lewis, whom he married Aug. 13, 1901.

Survivors include two sons, George E. Lewis and Homer J. Lewis, both of Wellsville; three daughters, Miss Mary Lewis at home, Mrs. J. R. (Dora) DuMoulin of Wellsville and Mrs. Jeanette Newbold of Kearny, N. J.; a sister, Mrs. Jean McCoy of Wintersville, and eight grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 at the MacLean Funeral Home in Wellsville by the Rev. James D. Sanko of the Riverside United Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in Springhill Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight and Wednesday afternoon and night.

Marie Marchegiano

Services are being arranged for Marie Ann Marchegiano, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marchegiano of 151 Midland Ave., Midland, who was found dead in her crib this morning shortly after 6 a. m.

Marchegiano telephoned Midland police and told them the child, born Oct. 18, appeared lifeless. Officers, after investigating, summoned an ambulance, which took the infant to Rochester General Hospital where an autopsy was planned today by Dr. John Colavincenzo, Beaver County coroner.

Police said the family indicated the mother had fed the child at 2 a. m. and she appeared normal at the time.

The Schwerha Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Margaret Walker

A Requiem Mass will be celebrated Wednesday at 10 a. m. for Mrs. Margaret Walker, 67, of Lake Mary, Fla., a former resident of Midland, who died Saturday at Seminole Memorial Hospital, Sanford, Fla.

The service will be at the St. Christine Catholic Church of Industry, with the Rev. Fr. A. E. Williams officiating.

Burial will be in Beaver Cemetery, Beaver.

Typhoon Kills 4

MANILA (AP) — Typhoon Nancy moved toward Hong Kong today after raking the main Philippine island of Luzon and leaving at least 4 dead and 21 missing.

Strike

by their respective school boards.

Both school boards have said they may send notices to all striking teachers, notifying them that the state's Ferguson Act bans strikes by public employes.

The strike started Monday when Youngstown teachers picketed the system's 44 schools and Hubbard teachers picketed four schools in their districts.

Both federation groups are members of the AFL — CIO and backed by the Ohio Federation of Teachers.

A YFT spokesman said less than 10 per cent of Youngstowns 1,246 public school teachers crossed picket lines. School officials said 70 per cent of the teachers were on the job.

In Hubbard, about 55 per cent of Hubbard's 140 teachers went to work.

Bus drivers have supported the strikes and the walkouts have disrupted transportation for some 2,000 parochial school pupils in Youngstown who depend on public transportation under a new Ohio law which provides it for them.

Besides collective bargaining, the Hubbard strike is for a 10 per cent pay increase and 36 benefits listed by the HFT. Starting salaries in Hubbard are $4,700 a year, while persons teaching 13 years and having a masters' degree can earn $8,084 annually, a union spokesman said.

The spokesman added that besides the increase, teachers want a lowering to 10 years the time required to reach the maximum salary.

Teacher Strike Seen As First One In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A strike by teachers in Youngstown and Hubbard apparently is the first such work stoppage in Ohio, State School Supt. Martin Essex reported today.

He said the only comparable situation he recalled was a one-day walkout last year by teachers at Tallmadge, but that in that case the teachers limited their demonstration to a single day and agreed in advance to make up lost class time.

It is uncertain what might be done about class days missed in Youngstown and Hubbard.

State law requires a minimum of 180 school days. But the state superintendent can lower this minimum to 175 days in cases of "public calamity," usually defined as weather conditions or mechanical problems which force closing of schools.

Essex said he has asked the attorney general's office to say whether a labor dispute might be construed a public calamity. If not, the Youngstown and Hubbard schools presumably might have to make up the missed days or face loss of state aid.

Essex said a state law prohibiting strikes by public employes presumably would cover school teachers but that he knew of no instances where the law had been invoked.

He noted the law, which provides for dismissal of employes who strike, was not used in walkouts by municipal employes earlier this year in Dayton and Youngstown.

Essex said state laws forbid school boards to recognize a union or other organization as bargaining agent for teachers. But he said several districts, including Cleveland, have by agreement accepted the American Federation of Teachers AFL — CIO or some similar agent as spokesman for the teachers.

Raises

He was accompanied by Patrolmen William A. Devon and Orin C. Smith, members of the wage and grievance committee.

The police department also requested:

A vacation of 15 working days for each officer up to 10 years' service, with an additional seven working days off for those who have more than 10 years on the force.

Establishment of seven paid holidays for the department, with an officer receiving an extra day off if the holiday falls on his usual day off. Those who worked would be paid double time and a quarter, under the FOP proposal.

The city to pay for hospital insurance for the officers and members of their families. At present, the city pays for hospital insurance of the employes, but the worker must pay the premium for coverage for his dependents.

A boost in the uniform allowance to give a new officer $100 when he joins the force and $150 annually thereafter. In the present setup a new officer receives $50 to help buy his uniforms and $100 annually.

In addition to the written proposals given Council, Blevins added three verbally: Retain the captain's positoin which was held by the late Robert H. Pyle, instead of creating a fourth lieutenancy; raise the city - paid life insurance from $1,000 to $5,000, and provide city insurance on police cruisers.

The fire department's proposals were presented by Robert Lynn, Dolph Nott and Harold Fry, representing Local 24, International Association of Firefighters.

Firemen also asked paid hospitalization for dependents; a $150 annual uniform allowance and a boost in life insurance from $1,000 to $5,000.

In a request for improved vacations, firemen said members of their department now receive two weeks off each year for up to 15 years' service. Men with more than 15 years' service have three - week vacations, they said.

Firemen asked two weeks' vacation for up to five years' service; three weeks off for men with more than five and less than 10 years' service, and four weeks' vacation for those with more than 10 years' service.

Ranking officers of the two departments asked raises in a conference with Council Nov. 7. They sought a boost from $540 to $600 for the fire and police chiefs; a hike from $485 to $550 for the police captain, and a raise from $475 to $525 for the police lieutenants and assistant fire chifes.

Blevins told the Council members the police department has a high standard of professionalism, but "the city has been paying a below average wage to an above average department."

The police spokesmen said the department has four vacancies, but the Civil Service Commission has been able to obtain few applicants for the posts because of higher wages paid in private industry.

Councilman Robert W. Sample, chairman of the finance committee, said the requests will be considered when the 1967 appropriation ordinance is drafted.

Routine Day Slated Today For Johnson

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson is scheduled for another "strictly routine day" at his Texas ranch on this third anniversary of his succession to the presidency.

The "strictly routine day" report came from press secretary Bill D. Moyers, who offered the same evaluation of Monday's activities by the recuperating President. Johnson moved up from vice president to President when John F. Kennedy was assassinated Nov. 22, 1963.

A routine day for Johnson means no official visitors, but does not rule out a variety of other work such as reading a packet of reports which arrives daily from Washington, and telephoning key officials.

Moyers said Johnson was "feeling good," but with some soreness in both his throat and abdomen as a result of the removal last Wednesday of a throat polyp and the repair of an incisional hernia.

Viet Nam

action was reported elsewhere in Viet Nam.

Over North Viet Nam, the bad flying weather of the past two weeks persisted and U.S. pilots flew only 41 missions Monday. They hit at storage areas, roads and truck parks, mostly in the southern panhandle.

U.S. pilots flew 473 single-plane sorties Monday against Viet Cong camps, storage areas and fortified positions in South Viet Nam. South Vietnamese pilots flew 147.

The U.S. Navy announced that one sailor was killed and five were injured aboard the destroyer Philip Sunday when a highline rig collapsed during refueling in the Gulf of Tonkin off North Viet Nam.

The highline was rigged between the Philip and the tanker Navasota and was being used to transfer mail and supplies. The Navy said a coupling on the line parted.

Drivers

said today they set a deadline last Thursday, announcing they wanted some additional satisfaction on their wage request by 7 a.m. yesterday.

A spokesman for the drivers said the board voted not to raise salaries and stated the men "didn't think it was doing us justice."

Questioned on whether their deadline announcement of last Thursday mentioned the ultimatum of a strike, the anonymous bus driver replied "We didn't say if we would or wouldn't, but took it for granted that a strike was understood."

Absenteeism at the four schools yesterday ranged from 35 to 50 per cent. Today Supt. Henderson placed the attendance figures at 65 per cent for Irondale, 35 per cent at Hammondsville, 80 per cent at Edison and 40 per cent at Stanton Local High School.

The increase in attendance was due to parents driving their children to school this morning. Henderson requested parents make arrangements relative to the students coming to school.

Deaths and Funerals

Carl Mossor

Carl Denver Mossor, 51, of Liberty Ave., Lawrenceville, was found dead of an apparent heart attack about 7 a. m. today in his auto, parked in a rented garage near his home.

He had apparently driven the car into the garage Monday night. In poor health, Mr. Mossor was to have gone to Pittsburgh today for an examination relative to poor heart circulation.

The gas tank of the auto had been filled last night for the trip and the motor was still running this morning.

Mr. Mossor was born April 27, 1915, in Wick, W. Va., the son of the late William and Rachel Mossor.

He had lived for about 8½ years in Long Beach, Calif., until last October, when he returned to the area.

He had retired as a mill worker while in California due to disability. He was a World War II veteran, a member of the DAV and the Wick Methodist Church.

Survivors include his widow, Helen Bailey Mossor, in Lawrenceville; a son, David Mossor, of Spokane, Wash.; two daughters, Mrs. Frank (Madelyn) Lotzgesselle of Steubenville and Mrs. Ray (Marian) Browne of Bell, Calif.; three step - children, Sgt. Don E. Bailey of Yucca Valley, Calif.; Mrs. George (Zelda) Bowman of Pensacola, Fla., and Mrs. F. J. (Norma) Przybylowicz of Lawton, Okla.; two brothers, Rosmond Mossor of Wick and Russell Mossor of Long Beach, Calif.; three sisters, Mrs. Salem Grimm of Newell and Mrs. Lawrence Baker and Mrs. Olin Groves, both of Middlebourne, W. Va., and 16 grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the Arner Funeral Chapel in Chester, with the Rev. Forrest Campbell of the Chester Methodist Church officiating.

Burial will be at Locust Hill Cemetery, near Chester.

Harry Hutton

Harry W. Hutton, a native of Beaver County, died Monday at 11 a.m. at the Chillicothe Veterans Hospital, where he had been a patient 25 years.

A World War I veteran, he was the son of the late Frank Pearce Hutton and Harriet Smith Hutton. At one time he was a farmer in Hancock County, near Chester. He served in France as a military policeman.

He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Anna Moore of Pughtown, Mrs. Edith Wycoff of Chester and Mrs. Grace Mountford of East Liverpool, and several nephews and nieces.

Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Dawson Funeral Home by the Rev. E. C. Traylor of the First Church of Christ. Burial will be in Locust Hill Cemetery, Chester.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight.

Mrs. Ollie Smith

Mrs. Ollie Smith, 82, of 1845 Lisbon St., widow of George Smith, died Monday at 11:35 a.m. at City Hospital after a long illness. She had made her home with a son, Ralph G. Smith.

Mrs. Smith was born in New Matamoras, Nov. 8, 1884, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John McCullough. She had resided in the vicinity for 60 years and was a member of the St. Clair Ave. Church of Christ. Her husband died Jan. 4, 1944.

She also leaves another son, Blaine Smith; a brother, John Marcus McCullough, and a sister, Mrs. Rose Alexander, all of East Liverpool; three grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Martin Funeral Home by the Rev. Ronald Meecham. Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Friends may call at the funeral home this afternoon and night.

John Lewis

John G. Lewis, 88, of 1920 Clark Ave., Wellsville, a retired wreckmaster for the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., died at home at 6 a. m. today. He had been in failing health several years.

Mr. Lewis was born at Butler, Pa., Aug. 24, 1878, a son of the late John Lewis and Mary Johnson Lewis. He had resided for a time in Jefferson County before moving to Wellsville, where he spent most of his life. He had been employed by the railroad until his retirement in 1945. He was an elder at the Covenant United Presbyterian Church for 50 years and had been a member of the International Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. He was preceded in death May 3, 1966, by his wife, Mrs. Cora J. Mills Lewis, whom he married Aug. 13, 1901.

Survivors include two sons, George E. Lewis and Homer J. Lewis, both of Wellsville; three daughters, Miss Mary Lewis at home, Mrs. J. R. (Dora) DuMoulin of Wellsville and Mrs. Jeanette Newbold of Kearny, N. J.; a sister, Mrs. Jean McCoy of Wintersville, and eight grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 at the MacLean Funeral Home in Wellsville by the Rev. James D. Sanko of the Riverside United Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in Springhill Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight and Wednesday afternoon and night.

Marie Marchegiano

Services are being arranged for Marie Ann Marchegiano, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marchegiano of 151 Midland Ave., Midland, who was found dead in her crib this morning shortly after 6 a. m.

Marchegiano telephoned Midland police and told them the child, born Oct. 18, appeared lifeless. Officers, after investigating, summoned an ambulance, which took the infant to Rochester General Hospital where an autopsy was planned today by Dr. John Colavincenzo, Beaver County coroner.

Police said the family indicated the mother had fed the child at 2 a. m. and she appeared normal at the time.

The Schwerha Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Margaret Walker

A Requiem Mass will be celebrated Wednesday at 10 a. m. for Mrs. Margaret Walker, 67, of Lake Mary, Fla., a former resident of Midland, who died Saturday at Seminole Memorial Hospital, Sanford, Fla.

The service will be at the St. Christine Catholic Church of Industry, with the Rev. Fr. A. E. Williams officiating.

Burial will be in Beaver Cemetery, Beaver.

Typhoon Kills 4

MANILA (AP) — Typhoon Nancy moved toward Hong Kong today after raking the main Philippine island of Luzon and leaving at least 4 dead and 21 missing.

Michigan State football squad members Bubba Smith, Jess Phillips, William Ware and Clint Harris all played for Pollard High School in Beaumont, Tex.

by their respective school boards.

Both school boards have said they may send notices to all striking teachers, notifying them that the state's Ferguson Act bans strikes by public employes.

The strike started Monday when Youngstown teachers picketed the system's 44 schools and Hubbard teachers picketed four schools in their districts.

Both federation groups are members of the AFL — CIO and backed by the Ohio Federation of Teachers.

A YFT spokesman said less than 10 per cent of Youngstowns 1,246 public school teachers crossed picket lines. School officials said 70 per cent of the teachers were on the job.

In Hubbard, about 55 per cent of Hubbard's 140 teachers went to work.

Bus drivers have supported the strikes and the walkouts have disrupted transportation for some 2,000 parochial school pupils in Youngstown who depend on public transportation under a new Ohio law which provides it for them.

Besides collective bargaining, the Hubbard strike is for a 10 per cent pay increase and 36 benefits listed by the HFT. Starting salaries in Hubbard are $4,700 a year, while persons teaching 13 years and having a masters' degree can earn $8,084 annually, a union spokesman said.

The spokesman added that besides the increase, teachers want a lowering to 10 years the time required to reach the maximum salary.

Teacher Strike Seen As First One In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A strike by teachers in Youngstown and Hubbard apparently is the first such work stoppage in Ohio, State School Supt. Martin Essex reported today.

He said the only comparable situation he recalled was a one-day walkout last year by teachers at Tallmadge, but that in that case the teachers limited their demonstration to a single day and agreed in advance to make up lost class time.

It is uncertain what might be done about class days missed in Youngstown and Hubbard.

State law requires a minimum of 180 school days. But the state superintendent can lower this minimum to 175 days in cases of "public calamity," usually defined as weather conditions or mechanical problems which force closing of schools.

Essex said he has asked the attorney general's office to say whether a labor dispute might be construed a public calamity. If not, the Youngstown and Hubbard schools presumably might have to make up the missed days or face loss of state aid.

Essex said a state law prohibiting strikes by public employes presumably would cover school teachers but that he knew of no instances where the law had been invoked.

He noted the law, which provides for dismissal of employes who strike, was not used in walkouts by municipal employes earlier this year in Dayton and Youngstown.

Essex said state laws forbid school boards to recognize a union or other organization as bargaining agent for teachers. But he said several districts, including Cleveland, have by agreement accepted the American Federation of Teachers AFL — CIO or some similar agent as spokesman for the teachers.

Raises

He was accompanied by Patrolmen William A. Devon and Orin C. Smith, members of the wage and grievance committee.

The police department also requested:

A vacation of 15 working days for each officer up to 10 years' service, with an additional seven working days off for those who have more than 10 years on the force.

Establishment of seven paid holidays for the department, with an officer receiving an extra day off if the holiday falls on his usual day off. Those who worked would be paid double time and a quarter, under the FOP proposal.

The city to pay for hospital insurance for the officers and members of their families. At present, the city pays for hospital insurance of the employes, but the worker must pay the premium for coverage for his dependents.

A boost in the uniform allowance to give a new officer $100 when he joins the force and $150 annually thereafter. In the present setup a new officer receives $50 to help buy his uniforms and $100 annually.

In addition to the written proposals given Council, Blevins added three verbally: Retain the captain's positoin which was held by the late Robert H. Pyle, instead of creating a fourth lieutenancy; raise the city - paid life insurance from $1,000 to $5,000, and provide city insurance on police cruisers.

The fire department's proposals were presented by Robert Lynn, Dolph Nott and Harold Fry, representing Local 24, International Association of Firefighters.

Firemen also asked paid hospitalization for dependents; a $150 annual uniform allowance and a boost in life insurance from $1,000 to $5,000.

In a request for improved vacations, firemen said members of their department now receive two weeks off each year for up to 15 years' service. Men with more than 15 years' service have three - week vacations, they said.

Firemen asked two weeks' vacation for up to five years' service; three weeks off for men with more than five and less than 10 years' service, and four weeks' vacation for those with more than 10 years' service.

Ranking officers of the two departments asked raises in a conference with Council Nov. 7. They sought a boost from $540 to $600 for the fire and police chiefs; a hike from $485 to $550 for the police captain, and a raise from $475 to $525 for the police lieutenants and assistant fire chifes.

Blevins told the Council members the police department has a high standard of professionalism, but "the city has been paying a below average wage to an above average department."

The police spokesmen said the department has four vacancies, but the Civil Service Commission has been able to obtain few applicants for the posts because of higher wages paid in private industry.

Councilman Robert W. Sample, chairman of the finance committee, said the requests will be considered when the 1967 appropriation ordinance is drafted.

He Is Not Alone

Three years ago today our nation's daily routine was knocked for a loop and stayed off balance for many days.

We were disbelieving at first, hoping that some grevious error had resulted in the reported tragedy. But it was no error. Early in the afternoon we learned our President was dead.

Somehow we dazedly struggled through the next few days. Even after John Fitzgerald was laid to rest, our sagging spirits couldn't be revived.

Our hearts went out to his widow and children.

A vicious blow had been struck at our young President, but the impact was felt by every American. Expressions of sympathy came from around the world.

Our first fears of a plot to take over our country were dispelled but still, we worried about our nation's future.

It is to the credit of our great nation that such an unexpected and incredible deed was overcome with the least possible disruption.

Time is truly a great healer. Today we can speak of the incident without using the hushed tones that seemed impreative at the time of the assassination.

Objectively we can say John F. Kennedy paid the supreme price for his county. He had offered it many times before in World War II. He was that kind of American.

He was carrying on a tradition that started with the American Revolution.

Today, an American GI in Viet Nam will give his life to put another link in that chain of tradition.

Due to the high office held by John F. Kennedy, the loss of that GI will not be felt as keenly by our nation as the assassination, but the individual sacrifice is the same.

Caution Needed

Fire continues to take its toll in the district — both in lives and in property.

With the demanding days of winter's cold yet to come, the need for added caution is quite clear.

First, if there are any doubts, recheck all heating equipment for possible mechanical defects.

Let's Not And Say We Did

If one thing about the forthcoming holiday spirit could be spared this year it is a repetition of palaver about a Christmas truce in Viet Nam.

Nothing would be more gratifying to Americans as a whole than to think their young men in that desolate corner of the earth might think about Christmas a time of peace and good will, but that is not possible.

There can be no peace and good will in Viet Nam. There can be no peace and good will anywhere on earth, as far as international relations are concerned.

Peace and good will are possible only in the minds of men, not in the policies of nations. Any U.S. fighting man in Viet Nam who fell into the grievous error of brooding about peace and good will in the presence of the Vietnamese enemy would find himself behind bars.

Last Christmas there was a flurry of Christmas spirit in connection with Viet Nam. It proved to be a mistake when it was over and some lives that would have been snuffed out had been preserved for snuffing out later, hardbitten realists who always have known exactly what needed to be done were sour.

They complained that Christmas spirit had given the undeclared enemy a chance to lick his wounds and bring up more supplies.

They said it was soft-headed to let up on the Vietnamese under any circumstances because the only thing that would make them knuckle under to the American point of view was unrelenting bombing, shelling and hand-to-hand combat—no time out for sentimentality.

It would be an affront to these hard-bitten people who know exactly what must be done to save mankind to go through another experience like that.

Christmas should be celebrated in Viet Nam with a demonstration of maximum U.S. firepower. Nothing should give unfriendly natives the idea that the United States will stop short of their extermination to make them see the light.

Besides, what do they know about Christmas?

Shopping Season

With the Christmas shopping season at hand, more than merchandise on store counters will be an attraction.

There are those who will be "shopping" for the purses of unsuspecting and busy housewives as they go gift hunting.

Reports already are trickling in here of thefts. It's the season to be merry, but a stolen purse can take merriment out of things in a hurry.

The Inglorious Details

Sandy Koufax has been forced to retire by the pain in his pitching arm. He is loaded with cash, thanks to a $125,000 salary.

It never has been possible to comprehend how the greatest pitcher in baseball could do it with a pitching arm so crippled by arthritis it had to be desensitized to make it usable.

But then it never has been possible to understand how Mickey Mantle could be as great as he has been with legs so wracked by pain he was virtually a cripple.

Dozens of professional football players and hundreds of amateurs gallop on the gridiron once a week with injuries to their knees and other parts of their battered bodies so serious they live under a physician's care.

Basketball players go through a long season of physical agony, sometimes so acute their suffering is visible to spectators.

But for the most part the inglorious details of athletic sports are hidden from spectator view beneath layers of bandages, pain-killing injections and human courage that passeth understanding.

How can they do it?

Probably for the money they get paid, which is pretty much the reason millions of the rest of us can drag ourselves out of bed each morning to start our accustomed rounds of duty, headachy, feverish, wincing with pain, dragging one leg behind us, keeping our chins up out of sheer determination—and not within several hundred thousand dollars of having enough capital stashed away to-call it a day.

Johnson, Kennedy

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Three years after his death, President John F. Kennedy has become a magic figure to many Americans, perhaps to most. He ranks far higher in popular favor than his successor, President Johnson.

But much of this appraisal has its roots not in intellect but in emotion and personality, plus some other factors in the American society of this time. It is no barometer for what historians will say 50 years from now.

Kennedy had style, one of the most frequently used words in describing him, grace, wit and a streak of the poetic in his response to people and events.

And he always had enough self-assurance to keep his ego out of sight in a bottle with a cork in it in the hall closet. He didn't let it creep out on him in public.

PERHAPS just as important in trying to understand the intensity of the devotion to this man who died so recently was the sense of youth he conveyed — new hope, new starts, new horizons — in a country where far more than half the population is under 50. He was 46 when he died.

Thus dying when and how he did — still young but assassinated — he moved instantly into history on the rich carpet of martyrdom with all that meant in the accompanying embroidery of mythology: adulation, sentimentality and magnified appreciation.

Johnson has little of Kennedy's glamor and sense of youth. He is older, anyway. He is 58. He has not much wit, not much grace in the Kennedy sense, his utterances are not poetic but prosaic.

And he wears his egotism like a green beret, with "I this" and "we this" and "my that." Yet, right here one of the great differences between Johnson and Kennedy appears, on the surface at least.

Where the self-assured Kennedy, out of a wealthy and cultured background, gave the impression of taking public approval for granted, the poor-backgrounded Johnson seems uncertain of it, but terribly anxious for it.

This makes for awkwardness and, in comparison with Kennedy, Johnson is awkward. This may explain why many people, who cringe at awkwardness and consider the intrusion of the ego bad taste, say they dislike Johnson and remember Kennedy almost with a sigh.

THAT IS AN appraisal based on performance but on personality. Perhaps the time in which we live — affluence without crisis or panic anywhere in view — is the basis for this kind of attitude.

It gives people the luxury of picking and choosing more on how a man appeals to them than on what he does. But to judge Johnson on his personality is not only unfair, it's unrealistic, if he is to be judged as a president.

Kennedy never worked as hard at the presidency as Johnson, who never stops working. He knows Congress, and how to get what he wants there, better than Kennedy ever did or perhaps ever would have.

It's doubtful Kennedy could have obtained congressional approval for the mass of major legislation — some his, some Johnson's — which Johnson got through in 1965.

A long time from now, when historians try to decide the proper place of Johnson and Kennedy in the list of presidents, the judgment will be based not on personality but on achievement.

Odd Facts

Cities with their suburbs, airports and shopping centers are gobbling land at a rate of about a million acres a year.

The largest of all crustaceans in the world is the scarlet giant Japanese spider crab, whose body is as much as a foot across and whose legs can span up to 12 feet, claw-tip to claw-tip.

Less than one two-billionth of the energy radiated by the sun is intercepted by the earth.

About-Face In California

By Raymond Moley

The California electorate, which has too often in the past been the object of highbrow ridicule, vindicated itself this year in two important respect. First, it did not hold that a man who is a professional actor should for that reason be barred from a high public office. Second, it chose, by an overwhelming majority, as lieutenant governor a man who by any test in academic circles would qualify as a true intellectual.

Toward the end Gov. Edmund G. Brown sharpened his attack on his opponent by saying that John Wilkes Booth was also an actor. It is a pity that Ronald Reagan did not reply that while he and Booth were, in truth, actors Pat Brown was surely not playing the role of Abraham Lincoln.

By electing Bob Finch to the office of lieutenant governor, California made a decision that should go a long way to destroy the prejudice which has always handicapped men of fine intelligence and education in seeking a political career. Although Finch is not a professor, I am sure that he would qualify for membership in any faculty. His post-graduate training was several years in political management. He ran once, unsuccessfully, for Congress.

IN OFFERING HIMSELF as a candidate for lieutenant governor, Finch faced another taboo. Ed Flynn, who was Franklin Roosevelt's master strategist, never sought elective office for himself. He told me that a political manager should never be a candidate. The mental attitude of a candidate, Flynn said, is quite detached from the qualifications and conduct of a manager.

Over the past decade Finch has given his energies to managing the political fortunes of other people. He served for some time in the 1950s as executive for the Republican Associates of Los Angeles. For a while before 1960 he was Vice President Nixon's assistant in seeking the nomination. In the months that followed he shared with Len Hall the management of Nixon's campaign. He worked also in Nixon's campaign for governor in 1962. In 1964 he managed George Murphy's remarkably successful try for the Senate.

And then, after working for so many others, he sought something on his own. He started early and prepared well. His major problem was to make himself known to the immense population of the state.

Last February, with the primaries ahead, I talked with Finch and wrote for publication the following summary of his political manifesto:

"Finch, correctly it seems to me, conceives that the people of this country since the confusion of 1964 have grown sick and tired of old ideological expressions such as 'liberal,' 'conservative,' 'left' and 'right,' 'moderate,' 'radical' and 'extreme' this or that. The glue on the old party labels doesn't stick any more . . .

FINCH MAKES THE relevant point that the United States is at the end of one era and entering another. Within a relatively few years three of every four Americans will live and work in a few great megalopolitan areas. In California there is in the making a vast urban and semiurban complex stretching from the Golden Gate to San Diego . . . It will be so throughout the nation—from Boston to Washington, from Pittsburgh to Milwaukee and elsewhere.

"The federal government is somewhat but not clearly aware of this change . . . But despite its pretensions and billions of expenditures, the federal establishment cannot alone meet the problems of these population congestions. The limits of federal spending are already in sight . . .

"This is not to say along with some reactionaries that we must repeal the federal trend of the past 30 years. That was an era when Washington helped on the local levels. Now, looking ahead, the local levels must help the federal establishment to carry the burden. The latent resources in wealth and talent are there at those levels. They must be mobilized."

Perhaps this sounds academic to some who are familiar with the sloppy jargon of politics. But the appeal of Finch's quiet personality and the logic of his arguments won him respect and support. His majority over his opponent, the incumbent and well-entrenched lieutenant governor, was an amazing 1,221,917 votes. This surpassed Reagan's margin over Brown by 256,019. It is a tribute to youth, candor and reliance upon a new, fresh expression of the issues.

New Corps?

Putting Technology To Good Use

By SOL M. LINOWITZ
U.S. Ambassador to the Organization of American States

WASHINGTON—The time has come for government, industry, agriculture and labor to join forces to create a great new People's Corps. Such a corps would insure that our exploding new technology is put to effective use throughout the world.

A united effort by the four major segments of the American economy to spread the technological revolution to all parts of the earth could contribute enormously to a sounder basis for world peace and prosperity. An American People's Corps could become the strongest program yet devised for person-to-person international aid and cooperation.

A People's Corps team would go into an emerging nation or one with a semi-sophisticated economy and technology on an invitation from the country. It would make available knowledge and information that would immediately be put to effective use.

THE ONLY LIMITATION would be on ability to translate imagination into practicality

A complete collection of all written American knowledge soon may be housed in a single microfilm library no larger than present conventional libraries. We already have machines that instantly print out in readable size type from microfilm negatives.

In the not-too-distant future, any kind of information could be flashed on demand from a central microfilm library and made accessible anywhere in the world.

When an agronomist in India needs information to save a wheat crop capable of feeding thousands of people, we can provide that information quickly and accurately.

Seven thousand school children in the lovely South Pacific islands comprising American Samoa receive elementary education by means of a General Electric educational television network. This strong beginning could be expanded into a mighty "People's Corps" tool to erase illiteracy in emerging areas.

IBM DATA PROCESSING equipment is cutting months off census-taking time in Botswana. This emerging African nation urgently needs a foolproof shortcut to complete population and related information to plan for education and economic development.

Other IBM computers phenomenally have speeded flood control in Guyana; malnutrition-destroying food additive development in Guatemala, Mexico and the Congo, and irrigation in Pakistan.

These are but a few of contributions abroad made by American industry on an individual basis. A People's Corps, through coordination and dedication, could multiply such contributions to a waiting world.

We hear too much about what our new technology may do to enslave man and not enough about what it may do to liberate him.

IN AND OF ITSELF technology is amoral. It becomes good or bad depending upon what you do with it.

An automobile can transport you or kill you; so can an airplane. Atomic energy can blow us up or give us unlimited energy to reach unlimited horizons. Television can bring us Pablo Casals or "Peyton Place."

So the first challenge of modern technology is how to use it to accomplish what we want.

Advances in technology have meant reduction of hunger and disease, abolition of slavery, relief of bondage, extension of human life. They have led to improvements in human welfare and the alleviaion of human and social needs.

Dr. Grayson Kirk, president of Columbia University, has pointed out that 90 per cent of the medical prescriptions being written today could not have been filled 20 years ago because the ingredients were than unknown.

There are methods to communicate faster than ever before, to spread truth more quickly, to bring aid more effectively, to advance progress and civilization more effectively.

DATA STORAGE and processing systems today not only compile and store information but also make it available throughout the world on demand. These systems meet human needs, help to develop underdeveloped areas and inform the uninformed.

If Communism does indeed thrive on ignorance and misery then this technology properly harnessed can become a massive bulward against its spread.

Even more significant is what the new technology will mean to education. One thing is certain. Advanced echnology depends on the educated man to create it, to make it work and to improve it.

The narrow craftsman trained in his "splinter specialty" will no longer be able to manage things in a technological society. Progress in this kind of society will depend mre on educatior, then on all the other traditional criteria—family, social position, inheritance, and the like.

Only the properly educated will be qualified to understand and to take the responsibility for decisions in a democratic society.

ONE MAGNIFICIENT BY-PRODUCT of the new technology, should, therefore, be to impel us toward a far better educated, therefore, a stronger demmocratic society than ever before. It will demand governmenttal representatives able to deal wisely with the complex problems of the new age in such areas as space, atomic energy, defense, regulation of industry, commerce, labor, and the whole world around us.

An educated democratic society will be less apt to be intimidated by the name-caller, the tub-thumper, the breast-beater, the rumormonger.

He Is Not Alone

Three years ago today our nation's daily routine was knocked for a loop and stayed off balance for many days.

We were disbelieving at first, hoping that some grevious error had resulted in the reported tragedy. But it was no error. Early in the afternoon we learned our President was dead.

Somehow we dazedly struggled through the next few days. Even after John Fitzgerald was laid to rest, our sagging spirits couldn't be revived.

Our hearts went out to his widow and children.

A vicious blow had been struck at our young President, but the impact was felt by every American. Expressions of sympathy came from around the world.

Our first fears of a plot to take over our country were dispelled but still, we worried about our nation's future.

It is to the credit of our great nation that such an unexpected and incredible deed was overcome with the least possible disruption.

Time is truly a great healer. Today we can speak of the incident without using the hushed tones that seemed impreative at the time of the assassination.

Objectively we can say John F. Kennedy paid the supreme price for his county. He had offered it many times before in World War II. He was that kind of American.

He was carrying on a tradition that started with the American Revolution.

Today, an American GI in Viet Nam will give his life to put another link in that chain of tradition.

Due to the high office held by John F. Kennedy, the loss of that GI will not be felt as keenly by our nation as the assassination, but the individual sacrifice is the same.

Caution Needed

Fire continues to take its toll in the district — both in lives and in property.

With the demanding days of winter's cold yet to come, the need for added caution is quite clear.

First, if there are any doubts, recheck all heating equipment for possible mechanical defects.

Let's Not And Say We Did

If one thing about the forthcoming holiday spirit could be spared this year it is a repetition of palaver about a Christmas truce in Viet Nam.

Nothing would be more gratifying to Americans as a whole than to think their young men in that desolate corner of the earth might think about Christmas a time of peace and good will, but that is not possible.

There can be no peace and good will in Viet Nam. There can be no peace and good will anywhere on earth, as far as international relations are concerned.

Peace and good will are possible only in the minds of men, not in the policies of nations. Any U.S. fighting man in Viet Nam who fell into the grievous error of brooding about peace and good will in the presence of the Vietnamese enemy would find himself behind bars.

Last Christmas there was a flurry of Christmas spirit in connection with Viet Nam. It proved to be a mistake when it was over and some lives that would have been snuffed out had been preserved for snuffing out later, hardbitten realists who always have known exactly what needed to be done were sour.

They complained that Christmas spirit had given the undeclared enemy a chance to lick his wounds and bring up more supplies.

They said it was soft-headed to let up on the Vietnamese under any circumstances because the only thing that would make them knuckle under to the American point of view was unrelenting bombing, shelling and hand-to-hand combat—no time out for sentimentality.

It would be an affront to these hard-bitten people who know exactly what must be done to save mankind to go through another experience like that.

Christmas should be celebrated in Viet Nam with a demonstration of maximum U.S. firepower. Nothing should give unfriendly natives the idea that the United States will stop short of their extermination to make them see the light.

Besides, what do they know about Christmas?

Shopping Season

With the Christmas shopping season at hand, more than merchandise on store counters will be an attraction.

There are those who will be "shopping" for the purses of unsuspecting and busy housewives as they go gift hunting.

Reports already are trickling in here of thefts. It's the season to be merry, but a stolen purse can take merriment out of things in a hurry.

The Inglorious Details

Sandy Koufax has been forced to retire by the pain in his pitching arm. He is loaded with cash, thanks to a $125,000 salary.

It never has been possible to comprehend how the greatest pitcher in baseball could do it with a pitching arm so crippled by arthritis it had to be desensitized to make it usable.

But then it never has been possible to understand how Mickey Mantle could be as great as he has been with legs so wracked by pain he was virtually a cripple.

Dozens of professional football players and hundreds of amateurs gallop on the gridiron once a week with injuries to their knees and other parts of their battered bodies so serious they live under a physician's care.

Basketball players go through a long season of physical agony, sometimes so acute their suffering is visible to spectators.

But for the most part the inglorious details of athletic sports are hidden from spectator view beneath layers of bandages, pain-killing injections and human courage that passeth understanding.

How can they do it?

Probably for the money they get paid, which is pretty much the reason millions of the rest of us can drag ourselves out of bed each morning to start our accustomed rounds of duty, headachy, feverish, wincing with pain, dragging one leg behind us, keeping our chins up out of sheer determination—and not within several hundred thousand dollars of having enough capital stashed away to-call it a day.

Johnson, Kennedy

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Three years after his death, President John F. Kennedy has become a magic figure to many Americans, perhaps to most. He ranks far higher in popular favor than his successor, President Johnson.

But much of this appraisal has its roots not in intellect but in emotion and personality, plus some other factors in the American society of this time. It is no barometer for what historians will say 50 years from now.

Kennedy had style, one of the most frequently used words in describing him, grace, wit and a streak of the poetic in his response to people and events.

And he always had enough self-assurance to keep his ego out of sight in a bottle with a cork in it in the hall closet. He didn't let it creep out on him in public.

PERHAPS just as important in trying to understand the intensity of the devotion to this man who died so recently was the sense of youth he conveyed — new hope, new starts, new horizons — in a country where far more than half the population is under 50. He was 46 when he died.

Thus dying when and how he did — still young but assassinated — he moved instantly into history on the rich carpet of martyrdom with all that meant in the accompanying embroidery of mythology: adulation, sentimentality and magnified appreciation.

Johnson has little of Kennedy's glamor and sense of youth. He is older, anyway. He is 58. He has not much wit, not much grace in the Kennedy sense, his utterances are not poetic but prosaic.

And he wears his egotism like a green beret, with "I this" and "we this" and "my that." Yet, right here one of the great differences between Johnson and Kennedy appears, on the surface at least.

Where the self-assured Kennedy, out of a wealthy and cultured background, gave the impression of taking public approval for granted, the poor-backgrounded Johnson seems uncertain of it, but terribly anxious for it.

This makes for awkwardness and, in comparison with Kennedy, Johnson is awkward. This may explain why many people, who cringe at awkwardness and consider the intrusion of the ego bad taste, say they dislike Johnson and remember Kennedy almost with a sigh.

THAT IS AN appraisal based on performance but on personality. Perhaps the time in which we live — affluence without crisis or panic anywhere in view — is the basis for this kind of attitude.

It gives people the luxury of picking and choosing more on how a man appeals to them than on what he does. But to judge Johnson on his personality is not only unfair, it's unrealistic, if he is to be judged as a president.

Kennedy never worked as hard at the presidency as Johnson, who never stops working. He knows Congress, and how to get what he wants there, better than Kennedy ever did or perhaps ever would have.

It's doubtful Kennedy could have obtained congressional approval for the mass of major legislation — some his, some Johnson's — which Johnson got through in 1965.

A long time from now, when historians try to decide the proper place of Johnson and Kennedy in the list of presidents, the judgment will be based not on personality but on achievement.

Panel Hears Evidence In $6,000 Claim

LISBON — Frank J. Tarr of 951 Summit St., Salem, told a Common Pleas Court jury Monday the Ohio Edison Co. ruined bottomland of his 94-acre property along the Sebring - Pine Lake Rd. in Perry Township.

Testimony resumed this morning in his $6,000 suit against the utility.

Tarr said he granted Ohio Edison an easement in 1958 to a 150-foot-wide strip of land running generally north to south the length of his property.

The film built an elevated service road along the strip for its transmission line, Tarr said, and this created a drainage problem which has turned the bottom into a swamp.

Ohio Edison's counsel, in opening statement, said the evidence will show the property is no different today than it was when the plaintiff purchased it in 1950.

The jury viewed the location late Monday morning.

Judge John G. Worley of Harrison County Common Pleas Court at Cadiz is presiding by appointment of the State Supreme Court. Judges Joel H. Sharp and Raymond S. Buzzard of Columbiana County disqualified themselves because they own stock in Ohio Edison.

GOP At Salineville Plans For Election

Named were Allen Allmon, William Hill and Donald Lewis. The election will be Dec. 19 at the home of Mrs. Hilda Hart of West End.

Mrs. Hart conducted business. Miss Gladys DeBolt of East Liverpool, Columbiana County GOP chairwoman, was a guest. Charles Gause thanked the club for its support in his successful race for county commissioner.

Marine Headed For Viet Nam Given Leniency On Speeding

"Anybody else would have gone to jail," Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff commented today to a 21-year-old Salem Marine headed for duty in Viet Nam who pleaded guilty to a State Highway Patrol charge of speeding 100 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone on the California Hollow Freeway.

Kenneth Lee McCartney was arrested Sunday about 6 p. m. by a patrol officer who said he pursued McCartney and another motorist at a speed of 120 miles an hour without making any appreciable gain on the two cars.

After reading the officer's report and questioning the serviceman, Judge Chertoff fined him $35 and costs and ordered a six - month suspension of his driver's license. McCartney said he is at home on leave, due to report Dec. 16 for duty in Viet Nam.

Patrolman J. T. Garrison said he saw McCartney's car and another auto pull onto Route 30 from the Y. & O. Rd. at Substation traveling "bumper - to - bumper." He said the two cars accelerated swiftly when they moved into the four - lane section of the Freeway and it was then that the patrol car hit a 120-mile pace.

When the two cars reached East Liverpool, one headed into the downtown section and McCartney turned south on Route 7, the officer reported. McCartney was cited after the patrol checked the license number of the car he was driving.

Two other motorists cited on traffic charges paid fines today in Municipal Court and another forfeited a bond.

Virginia Torrence of Bloomfield was fined $15 and costs when she pleaded guilty to a charge of speeding 50 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on St. Clair Ave. She was cited Monday at 7:15 p. m., police said.

Frank A. Verzella of 551 Main St., Wellsville, was fined $20 and costs on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on Route 7. He was cited by the patrol Nov. 14. The judge warned the defendant his operator's permit will be suspended if he is arrested again for a similar offense.

Gilbert L. Claypool, 59, of Karns City, Pa., forfeited a $17.50 bond on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on Route 7. He was cited Monday at 6:10 p. m. by the patrol.

The judge set a hearing Nov. 29 at 9 a. m. for Charles D. Houck of the Marshall Apartments, who pleaded not guilty on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone on Route 30. Houck was cited Monday at 5:30 p. m., the patrol said.

Youth, 20, Gets Three Years For Draft Evasion

BOSTON (AP) — David A. Reed, 20, of Voluntown, Conn., was sentenced to three years in prison on draft evasion charges Monday in U.S. District Court and then dragged from the courtroom after he sat on the floor and refused to leave.

Two other pacifists in the courtroom also refused to leave. One was dragged out. The other, an 18-year-old girl, was taken out in a chair.

Reed was found guilty by a jury Nov. 4 of refusing to report for his pre-induction physical and for induction itself. U.S. Dist. Judge Andrew A. Caffrey sentenced him to concurrent prison terms of three years on each count.

Man Gets 10 Years In Student Kidnaping

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A Clairton man convicted last September of kidnaping a West Virginia University student was sentenced Monday to a 10-year prison term by Federal Judge Wallace S. Gourley.

Larry Joe Bobbs, 20, was found guilty kidnaping Jeffrey C. Dyer, 18, at gunpoint near the university campus at Morgantown last April 2 and driving him across state lines in a stolen vehicle.

Judge Penalizes 4 Area Drivers

Four motorists charged with traffic violations were fined and a fifth was cleared of a speeding charge in County Judge Herbert Arfman's Court at East Palestine Monday.

Raymond F. Hill of East Palestine R. D. 1, cited for speeding, was found not guilty.

Fined were Margaret Wolfedale of John St., Glenmoor, $5 and costs for speeding; Shirley Mae Rodgers of Wellsville R.D. 1, $5 and costs for failure to yield the right of way; Michael Smotrilla of East Palestine, $5 and costs for driving left of center, and Sharon Ann Brock of 220 W. 6th St., $5 and costs for failure to signal a turn.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I make a good job of cleaning my linoleum?

A.—When scrubbing it, try adding a little paraffin to your water. This will take out all the dirt and grease, and also will add a nice gloss to your linoleum. If you rub the paraffin well into the linoleum, it will retain its color and wear twice as long.

Q.—Is there anything I can do about a dish that is cracked, but not actually broken?

A.—You can often obliterate the crack and strengthen the dish just by setting it in a pan of milk and boiling for about 45 minutes.

Nurses Stage March To Back Demands

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—About 70 nurses marched from South Side Hospital to Central Square Monday night in support of their demands for an increase in salaries.

The half - mile march by members of the Youngstown Hospitals' Nursing Association, was to show that the nurses are united in opposition to the Youngstown Hospital Association's offer to $2.60 an hour for professional registered nurses.

The nurses now are receiving $2.35 an hour, and a spokesman for the group said the latest offer is $85 a month under its demands.

Plans Pushed For Midland CAC Group

An organizational meeting of the Beaver County Community Action Committee for Midland will be held Dec. 2 at 7:30 p.m. at the Midcrest Community Building.

The group will elect a nominating committee to present a slate of officers to be voted upon at a future meeting.

Mrs. Francine Colamarino, coordinator of the county CAC, presided. She was accompanied by Jerry Moye, executive director. 8

The group discussed problems unique to Midland, and reviewed the Economic Opportunity program and the CAC's function in the county.

Mrs. Colamarino explained how the program will be related to Midland and how a planned neighborhood center in the borough will operate.

Infant Killed, Parents Injured As Car Flips

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — An auto overturned near Washington Monday, killing a three-week - old boy and hospitalizing his parents.

Killed was Joseph Hoehler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hoehler of the Pittsburgh suburb of Millvale.

Police said the auto veered onto the grass medial strip on Route 70 just east of Washington and flipped over on its roof.

Contract Let For 3 Trucks

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners awarded a contract for three trucks for the county Highway Department to Mike Turk, Inc., of East Liverpool Monday on a low bid of $4,978, including trade - in allowances on three used trucks.

Turk will furnish two one-ton Chevrolets and a three-quarter-ton Chevrolet. The trade - ins were two Internationals (1963 and 1954) and a 1959 Ford.

Thirteen other dealers submitted proposals:

Sam Brown Dodge, Salem, $4,987; Main St. Motors, Columbiana, $5,000; Lewis Chevrolet, Lisbon, $5,088; Parker Chevrolet, Salem, $5,245; Lehman Ford, Lisbon, $5,292; Columbiana Motors, $5,300.

Mackall Motors, East Palestine, $5,313; Bud Shaffer Ford, Salem, $5,401; Midway Motors GMC, New Waterford, $5,450; Mackall Motors, East Liverpool, $5,536; Wooley Chevrolet, Leetonia, $5,712; Wimmer Motor Sales, East Liverpool, $5,975, and Coy Buick, Salem, $5,984.

County commissioners yesterday employed Dagmar Zavodil of Columbiana as a licensed practical nurse for the County Home on the recommendation of Supt. Robert Boyce. She will begin work Wednesday at $300 a month.

Commissioners reappointed Commissioner James W. Boyd of East Liverpool to a five-year term on the County Airport Authority, made a $300 slag grant to Unity Township and authorized the Tuberculosis Control Clinic to purchase a desk and chair.

Since the Courthouse will be closed Thursday for Thanksgiving, the commissioners will not meet again until Monday.

Holiday Feasts Are Set At Home And County Jail

LISBON — Roast turkey and the trimmin's will deck the tables Thursday noon at the Columbiana County Home and County Jail.

Mrs. Gladys Boyce, matron at the home, gives the following menu for 130 residents and 25 helpers:

Turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes, giblet gravy, green beans with bacon and onions, cranberry sauce, bread and butter, coffee or milk and mincemeat pie.

Supt. Robert Boyce said a Bluebird Group from Salem made Thanksgiving favors for the tables and the county Catholic women's association is furnishing large sheetcakes as a second dessert.

Mrs. Elizabeth Polite, County Jail cook, will serve turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes, giblet gravy, buttered lima beans, cranberry sauce, cake, jello and coffee. Approximately 40 will be in jail over Thanksgiving.

Q.—What can I do about deep, unsightly scratches on mahogany furniture?

A.—One simple treatment that might work in your case consists of filling in the scratches with tincture of iodine, then applying furniture polish or wax, and polishing well.

Panel Hears Evidence In $6,000 Claim

LISBON — Frank J. Tarr of 951 Summit St., Salem, told a Common Pleas Court jury Monday the Ohio Edison Co. ruined bottomland of his 94-acre property along the Sebring - Pine Lake Rd. in Perry Township.

Testimony resumed this morning in his $6,000 suit against the utility.

Tarr said he granted Ohio Edison an easement in 1958 to a 150-foot-wide strip of land running generally north to south the length of his property.

The film built an elevated service road along the strip for its transmission line, Tarr said, and this created a drainage problem which has turned the bottom into a swamp.

Ohio Edison's counsel, in opening statement, said the evidence will show the property is no different today than it was when the plaintiff purchased it in 1950.

The jury viewed the location late Monday morning.

Judge John G. Worley of Harrison County Common Pleas Court at Cadiz is presiding by appointment of the State Supreme Court. Judges Joel H. Sharp and Raymond S. Buzzard of Columbiana County disqualified themselves because they own stock in Ohio Edison.

GOP At Salineville Plans For Election

Named were Allen Allmon, William Hill and Donald Lewis. The election will be Dec. 19 at the home of Mrs. Hilda Hart of West End.

Mrs. Hart conducted business. Miss Gladys DeBolt of East Liverpool, Columbiana County GOP chairwoman, was a guest. Charles Gause thanked the club for its support in his successful race for county commissioner.

At Council Session

Proposals Given For Action In '67

Mrs. Donna Richards Wilson, Council's only woman member, Monday night submitted three proposals which she said should be considered when the 1967 appropriation ordinance is compiled.

Mrs. Wilson asserted the city should set aside $80,000 a year "to improve one street in each of the four wards." Referring to her own ward, the Second, she said: "I think Avondale St. is a disgrace—it's like a washboard on a mountain side."

Mrs. Wilson said she believes Avondale St. should be improved without cost to the property owners. Or the city might assume 60 per cent of the cost and assess property owners for the other 40 per cent, she said.

MRS. WILSON also suggested hiring a full-time city dog warden. The present warden, who works on a part-time basis, "is not available until the late afternoon or evening," she said. Mrs. Wilson said the police department receives many dog complaints in the morning, particularly when pets follow children to school and cause nuisances on nearby private property.

Mrs. Wilson also declared that the city should fill holes in brick streets. She cited Ambrose Ave. as an example of the type of pavement to which she referred.

In opening her remarks, she said she campaigned earlier for fluoridation of the city water supply as a way of helping cut tooth decay.

"I had great hopes, but the first person on the Health Department with whom I discussed it was opposed to the plan," she said. "I had the same experience with the first person on the water department to whom I mentioned it."

Her suggestions stirred some remarks from other members.

"I agree with Mrs. Wilson that the streets are in terrible condition," Councilman Frank Duffy said. "There has been no attempt to fix them. Some of the streets are dug up by the utility companies and then not repaved properly.

"We have an income tax and people are wondering what we are doing with the money. We need storm sewers in East End. It's a disgrace. Let's get some work done."

Councilman Robert W. Sample commented that the Ohio Valley Gas Co. repaves its excavations with concrete and then surfaces them with blacktop. He said he observed an excavation backfilled by a plumber who did not use concrete in the new surface. As a result, the filled spot sunk below the level of the rest of the pavement, Sample said.

Duffy remarked that manholes in some spots are six to eight inches below the surface of the street — "just another bump for the people to drive over."

RALPH MUSURACA of 2601 St. Clair Ave. addressed Council for approximately 20 minutes, questioning the necessity for a system of electrically-lighted lane markers which the Federal Bureau of Public Roads has insisted the city must install on the three-lane section of outer St. Clair Ave. to indicate changes in the direction of traffic flow.

Musuraca insisted the signals are unnecessary and a waste of taxpayers' money. He said Council should arrange for federal officials to inspect the stretch in an effort to convince them that the lights are not needed.

Several members of Council replied that the provision for changing flow of traffic on the three-lane stretch was included in a 1962 ordinance in which the city sought aid from the federal government for the project. At first the U. S. insisted that the city must bear the entire cost of the signal system, but now the Federal Bureau of Public Roads has agreed to pay half the cost, provided parking is banned on the west lane, they pointed out.

The Rev. H. Gene Toot of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church commented that he feels banning parking on both sides of St. Clair "is the only practical solution" to the traffic problem.

Stanley Kidder of Michigan Ave. also appeared personally before Council, representing Odd Fellows Lodge 880 in East End. He thanked Council for acting promptly on a petition for improvement of Flint Alley, which lies alongside the lodge hall. He said he hopes the improvement can be accomplished next year.

COUNCIL received and filed two letters from Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper, answering questions which were referred to him earlier in the month.

The first concerned the city's right to enter into so-called mutual aid fire agreements with cities outside Ohio. The question was raised after East Liverpool fire equipment was not sent to help battle a bakery building fire in Chester several weeks ago.

Cooper's letter said that "it is definitely established that the city can provide fire assistance under the proper contract to communities or persons outside the city limits so long as said persons and communities are inside the state of Ohio."

But state law forbids contracts with out-of-state individuals and corporations, Cooper said.

His letter added: "The second question has been ruled on by the state attorney general's office in 1963 to the effect that an Ohio municipality cannot contract with individuals or corporations outside the state to furnish the same with fire protection. I have reviewed the attorney general's opinion and my opinion is the same. If the same were furnished by contract, then it would follow that East Liverpool firemen would not be protected by laws relating to injury on the job."

COOPER'S second letter followed an investigation into the claim of Mrs. Elizabeth Finlay of Sophia St., who asked damages from the city on grounds that a tree growing on municipally-owned property damaged her garage.

"The city is not liable in this case," Cooper wrote. "Under the circumstances, there is no statute which imposes liability on the city."

After the letter was read, Duffy declared that he feels Mrs. Finlay's claim is justified. The Council claims committee also felt the claim was just when it made an investigation, Duffy said.

Duffy asked an investigation of stop signs at Etruria and Wedgewood Sts. He said two signs are in place at the four-way junction and they're confusing to motorists.

Because of the absence of two members — Councilmen Floyd Murray and James Lowe — Council delayed action on three pieces of legislation.

They were: An ordinance to abolish the post of police department captain and create a fourth lieutenancy; a resolution authorizing the water department to advertise for bids and sign a contract for purchase of a two-ton truck, and another resolution for payment of a $26 claim against the city filed by James T. Allison of 1511 Globe St.

Councilmen indicated the measures will be presented at the next regular meeting on Dec. 5.

Solicitations are not complete, he said, and some sizable contributions still are expected from regular donors in the industrial and mercantile divisions.

If every individual and concern not yet reported gives the percentage increase equivalent to the drive boost over last year, the goal will be achieved, McGowan added. Last year's goal of $115,000 was met.

The budget for allotments to the 16 community service agencies supported by the drive was approved as follows:

Salvation Army $13,000; Recreation Council, $8,000; Child Health Clinic, $1,900; Child Counseling Center, $5,500; Boy Scouts, $14,500; Cerebral Palsy, $5,800; YMCA, $30,500; Red Cross, $18,500.

North Hancock County Girl Scouts, $500; United Service Organization, $1,000; Campfire Girls, $10,500; Catholic Charities Bureau, $3,300; Potters Little League Baseball, $1,500; Little League Basketball $250; Pony League, $1,000; Colt League, $1,289, and campaign expenses, $3,961.

Kennedy appointed Lawrence to the post after he helped Kennedy to a 117,000-vote majority in Pennsylvania in 1960.

Republicans, as well as Democrats, had kind words for Lawrence at his death, but he was a controversial figure during his career.

Critics awarded him the sarcastic title, "King David," and those who failed to receive his support called him, "Boss."

Despite his opponents, Lawrence pursued his programs vigorously, helping Pittsburgh out from under the "Smoky City" label by pushing air pollution control laws.

He launched the city on a pioner urban redevelopment project at the head of the Ohio River, turning the slum and factory area where he was born into a patch of glittering steel and aluminum skyscrapers called "The Golden Triangle."

Lawrence, whose own education ended in 10th grade, greatly admired scholar Woodrow Wilson and frequently devoted attention to students--like the time he boosted a foundering concert scheduled by Margaret Truman and purchased 1,000 tickets to distribute to students.

But he wasn't one to throw money around. He cancelled a $10,000 car ordered by his predecessor as governor and chose another with 90,000 miles on the odometer.

Lawrence was stricken with a heart seizure Nov. 4 while addressing a political rally and never regained consciousness.

By that time, 54 years after he attended his first Democratic National Convention as a page, he often found himself being termed a "statesman."

But he spurned the title. "That's what they call a politician when he gets old," he said.

A low pontificial mass will be celebrated Friday at St. Mary of Mercy Church in Pittsburgh.

Lawrence is survived by his widow, Alyce; two daughters, Mrs. Thomas K. Donahoe of Mount Lebanon and Mrs. Joseph Gannon of Bethel Park, and a son, Gerald, of Willow Grove.

Ribbon Cut At New Store

The latest Sears, Roebuck and Co. catalog store opened this morning in a new location at St. Clair Plaza in Calcutta.

A "grand opening" was observed, with representatives of the national organization present to host shoppers and area officials.

The new store will feature services not possible at the firm's former W. 5th St. location, officials pointed out. A complete appliance center, a new service department and home modernization department were created for the new site.

In addition, the store has a novel "red phone" which will put customers in direct communication with the teletype room and insure next-day delivery on most items.

The store will employ 22, including telephone workers, servicemen and sales personnel.

Carl L. Becker, originally of Williamsport, Pa., is the manager. He said store hours will be 10 a.m. through 10 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

Ike Quits Hospital After Routine Check that he agreed with Connally in rejecting the one-bullet theory.

The commission, in reaching its one-bullet conclusion, studied films of Connally's and Kennedy's relative positions and reactions in the presidential car and meshed these with timing data concerning the possible rapidity of the shots.

Proponents of the theory that someone in addition to Oswald fired shots contend the films and timing data show that Connally reacted too long after Kennedy to have been struck by the same bullet, but too soon thereafter for a second bullet to have been fired from the same rifle.

Schlesinger, a Pulitzer-prize winning historian, said at Oxford, Miss., that it "appears to me substantial facts and doubts do exist which would warrant a very intensive inquiry." He, like Life, suggested Congress initiate the new investigation.

Schlesinger said he had not read the Warren Commission report or any other books on the assassination.

Russell said questions could be raised. "The test is, can you answer them," he added.

Th senator said he had not wanted to serve on the commission, but did not say why. He said his objections had led to rewriting of some key findings of the commission report.

"I'm the only man that bucked the report," he said. "I told them, I'm not going to sign it as long as it's this way."

He said he objected to original wording that stated categorically there had been no conspiracy involved in the assassination. He insisted the report should go no further than saying that Oswald fired the shots that killed Kennedy and wounded Connally.

Russell said Chief Justice Earl Warren, the commission chairman, "was determined he was going to have a unanimous report. I said it wouldn't be any trouble just to put a little asterisk up here (in the text) and then down at the bottom of the page saying, 'Sen. Russell dissents to this finding as follows.'

"But Warren wouldn't hear of it. He finally took that part and rewrote it himself."

The final report said the commission found no evidence that Oswald "was part of any conspiracy, domestic or foreign."

At Council Session

Proposals Given For Action In '67

Mrs. Donna Richards Wilson, Council's only woman member, Monday night submitted three proposals which she said should be considered when the 1967 appropriation ordinance is compiled.

Mrs. Wilson asserted the city should set aside $80,000 a year "to improve one street in each of the four wards." Referring to her own ward, the Second, she said: "I think Avondale St. is a disgrace—it's like a washboard on a mountain side."

Mrs. Wilson said she believes Avondale St. should be improved without cost to the property owners. Or the city might assume 60 per cent of the cost and assess property owners for the other 40 per cent, she said.

MRS. WILSON also suggested hiring a full-time city dog warden. The present warden, who works on a part-time basis, "is not available until the late afternoon or evening," she said. Mrs. Wilson said the police department receives many dog complaints in the morning, particularly when pets follow children to school and cause nuisances on nearby private property.

Mrs. Wilson also declared that the city should fill holes in brick streets. She cited Ambrose Ave. as an example of the type of pavement to which she referred.

In opening her remarks, she said she campaigned earlier for fluoridation of the city water supply as a way of helping cut tooth decay.

"I had great hopes, but the first person on the Health Department with whom I discussed it was opposed to the plan," she said. "I had the same experience with the first person on the water department to whom I mentioned it."

Her suggestions stirred some remarks from other members.

"I agree with Mrs. Wilson that the streets are in terrible condition," Councilman Frank Duffy said. "There has been no attempt to fix them. Some of the streets are dug up by the utility companies and then not repaved properly.

"We have an income tax and people are wondering what we are doing with the money. We need storm sewers in East End. It's a disgrace. Let's get some work done."

Councilman Robert W. Sample commented that the Ohio Valley Gas Co. repaves its excavations with concrete and then surfaces them with blacktop. He said he observed an excavation backfilled by a plumber who did not use concrete in the new surface. As a result, the filled spot sunk below the level of the rest of the pavement, Sample said.

Duffy remarked that manholes in some spots are six to eight inches below the surface of the street — "just another bump for the people to drive over."

RALPH MUSURACA of 2601 St. Clair Ave. addressed Council for approximately 20 minutes, questioning the necessity for a system of electrically-lighted lane markers which the Federal Bureau of Public Roads has insisted the city must install on the three-lane section of outer St. Clair Ave. to indicate changes in the direction of traffic flow.

Musuraca insisted the signals are unnecessary and a waste of taxpayers' money. He said Council should arrange for federal officials to inspect the stretch in an effort to convince them that the lights are not needed.

Several members of Council replied that the provision for changing flow of traffic on the three-lane stretch was included in a 1962 ordinance in which the city sought aid from the federal government for the project. At first the U. S. insisted that the city must bear the entire cost of the signal system, but now the Federal Bureau of Public Roads has agreed to pay half the cost, provided parking is banned on the west lane, they pointed out.

The Rev. H. Gene Toot of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church commented that he feels banning parking on both sides of St. Clair "is the only practical solution" to the traffic problem.

Stanley Kidder of Michigan Ave. also appeared personally before Council, representing Odd Fellows Lodge 880 in East End. He thanked Council for acting promptly on a petition for improvement of Flint Alley, which lies alongside the lodge hall. He said he hopes the improvement can be accomplished next year.

COUNCIL received and filed two letters from Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper, answering questions which were referred to him earlier in the month.

The first concerned the city's right to enter into so-called mutual aid fire agreements with cities outside Ohio. The question was raised after East Liverpool fire equipment was not sent to help battle a bakery building fire in Chester several weeks ago.

Cooper's letter said that "it is definitely established that the city can provide fire assistance under the proper contract to communities or persons outside the city limits so long as said persons and communities are inside the state of Ohio."

But state law forbids contracts with out-of-state individuals and corporations, Cooper said.

His letter added: "The second question has been ruled on by the state attorney general's office in 1963 to the effect that an Ohio municipality cannot contract with individuals or corporations outside the state to furnish the same with fire protection. I have reviewed the attorney general's opinion and my opinion is the same. If the same were furnished by contract, then it would follow that East Liverpool firemen would not be protected by laws relating to injury on the job."

COOPER'S second letter followed an investigation into the claim of Mrs. Elizabeth Finlay of Sophia St., who asked damages from the city on grounds that a tree growing on municipally-owned property damaged her garage.

"The city is not liable in this case," Cooper wrote. "Under the circumstances, there is no statute which imposes liability on the city."

After the letter was read, Duffy declared that he feels Mrs. Finlay's claim is justified. The Council claims committee also felt the claim was just when it made an investigation, Duffy said.

Duffy asked an investigation of stop signs at Etruria and Wedgewood Sts. He said two signs are in place at the four-way junction and they're confusing to motorists.

Because of the absence of two members — Councilmen Floyd Murray and James Lowe — Council delayed action on three pieces of legislation.

They were: An ordinance to abolish the post of police department captain and create a fourth lieutenancy; a resolution authorizing the water department to advertise for bids and sign a contract for purchase of a two-ton truck, and another resolution for payment of a $26 claim against the city filed by James T. Allison of 1511 Globe St.

Councilmen indicated the measures will be presented at the next regular meeting on Dec. 5.

Murray and Lowe were excused. Sample, president pro tem, presided because Council President Ernest Lowe was acting mayor in the absence of Mayor George E. Willshaw. Willshaw was in Columbus on business.

The meeting opened with invocation by Rev. Toot.

Board Delays Barn's Action

The Hancock County Children's Home board tabled further action on the proposed construction of new barn during a meeting Monday night at the home, near Oak Glen High School on Gas Valley Rd.

Financing the construction had been discussed in a meeting of the county commissioners Nov. 7 and a dispute had arisen on the matter of transferring $16,000 left over from last year's home budget.

Floyd Tarr, court attorney, said at that time that money carried over could not be used if the appropriate item had not appeared on the budget submitted for the current fiscal year.

The board authorized William Hanlin, farm manager, to have repairs made on the tractor. He also was given permission to purchase two storm doors for his residence, adjacent to the Children's Home.

Mrs. Dorothy Knabb, child welfare worker, submitted her report.

The next meeting was advanced to Dec. 12.

Survived Invasion Of Normandy

Warren Report Satisfies Witness Of Assassination

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A survivor of the Normandy invasion, who nearly 20 years later witnessed another fateful moment in history, said today "I am more than satisfied" with the Warren Commission's findings on the Kennedy assassination.

At the same time he criticized authors of recent books seeking to disprove the commission report, saying, "This is nothing but cheap sensationalism on these people's part."

It was three years ago today that Charles F. Brehm, then 38, stood with his son less than 20 feet from President John F. Kennedy's limousine and saw him slump mortally wounded.

"I was so fascinated in looking at him I did not know anyone else was around. That's why I'm so positive of his actions," Brehm said in an interview.

Brehm was never called before the commission, which concluded that two rifle shots fired by Lee Harvey Oswald from the Texas School Book Depository just west of the downtown Dallas area struck the president. Neither were statements he gave authorities entered as exhibits.

"I see no reason why I should be called. I did not see the man who shot him. I did not see the shots fired. I don't feel that anything I would have said would have had any bearing on their outcome," he said.

Brehm said he knows nothing about anything that happened after, he said, he heard three rifle shots and saw two of them hit the president.

"These are the facts, this is the truth," he said of what he saw Nov. 22, 1963, when he took his son Joe, then 5, to see the president.

"I decided the best place to see him was from Main Street. We could get a better look when the car slowed to make the corner. He was in full view all the time.

"When the first shot went off I really didn't think it was gunfire. He (the president) had a sense of humor, and when his hands went up to the sides of his neck I thought he was making a gesture. I thought it was a backfire.

"Then the second shot hit him. He went down. He just went down. I knew the sound that bullets make, and it was at this time that I thought it was shooting.

"It was too weird to think that he was really shot. When I realized he had been I was trying to push that car to go, go, go.

"I fell with the boy on the ground. The third shot really upset me. I knew he was hit the first two times but the third one didn't make any sense at all."

Brehm said, "I contend that the third shot went wild."

Kennedy Seen 'Riding' Uncertain Political Crest

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three years after the assassination of his presidential brother, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy is riding an uncertain crest of political popularity.

Since the Dallas tragedy, the New York senator has carved out for himself an ambivalent political position in which he stands both with and against President Johnson.

That this is leading him toward an eventual bid for the presidency few are willing to deny. But the timing and circumstances for any such bid apparently remain uncertain quantities to the senator himself.

Kennedy is on record as saying he expects to support Johnson for re-election in 1968, that he will not seek the vice-presidential job now held by Hubert H. Humphrey and that he expects to bid for re-election to the Senate in 1970.

Taken at face value, this leaves only one obscure alternative for entry into the lists before 1972 — the bare possibility that President Johnson might not seek re-election two years from now. The Kennedys, it might be noted, overlook few possibilities.

While the current polls point to Kennedy, who was 41 last Sunday, as possibly the most popular individual Democrat, such popularity may need a great deal of bolstering to keep its flag flying high as the years tend to dissipate the wave of sympathy flowing toward him because of his brother's murder.

As politicians view his future, Kennedy will have to conitnue to chisel out individual positions on the major issues of the day.

This is a politically delicate process. It does not allow many casual mistakes such as his off-the-cuff observation at Berkeley, Calif., last month that he doesn't believe the people of South Viet Nam want Premier Nguyen Cao Ky.

Although Kennedy has become something of a hero to Democratic liberals because of his dissent to Johnson policies, the New York senator has been careful to limit his suggestions primarily to calls for wider efforts to gain peace in Asia.

Romney OKs Conference With Reagan

DORADO BEACH, P.R. (AP) — In an overture toward Republican unity, Gov. George Romney of Michigan has offered to meet with Gov.-elect Ronald Reagan of California to "develop understanding" between the party's liberal and censervative wings.

Romney, a leader of the liberal camp and possible candidate for the 1968 GOP nomination for president, suggested at a news conference Monday that Reagan eventually may be forced to join the liberals as he gains practical experience in coping with California's problems.

Asked about Romney's comments, Reagan said in San Francisco that he has been consistent in his views. He quipped that he isn't planning on becoming governor of Michigan.

Reagan said earlier that Romney had failed to support the 1964 Republican ticket headed by conservative Barry Goldwater. Romney rejected the charge, saying he had carried Michigan for the GOP by "emphasizing the Republican record of progress in Michigan."

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, who held the news conference with Romney, nodded in agreement as the Michigan governor offered "to sit down with Reagan and talk things through and develop understanding."

The two vacationing liberal Republican governors met with newsmen after a 2½-hour luncheon. Rockefeller was to return to New York today. Romney and his wife will stay until Dec. 4.

Romney did most of the talking at the news conference. Asked if he would seek the 1968 presidential nomination, Romney said he was not a candidate now and would not decide whether to run until "after I take a long, hard look."

Board Delays Barn's Action

The Hancock County Children's Home board tabled further action on the proposed construction of new barn during a meeting Monday night at the home, near Oak Glen High School on Gas Valley Rd.

Financing the construction had been discussed in a meeting of the county commissioners Nov. 7 and a dispute had arisen on the matter of transferring $16,000 left over from last year's home budget.

Floyd Tarr, court attorney, said at that time that money carried over could not be used if the appropriate item had not appeared on the budget submitted for the current fiscal year.

The board authorized William Hanlin, farm manager, to have repairs made on the tractor. He also was given permission to purchase two storm doors for his residence, adjacent to the Children's Home.

Mrs. Dorothy Knabb, child welfare worker, submitted her report.

The next meeting was advanced to Dec. 12.

Warren Report Satisfies Witness Of Assassination

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A survivor of the Normandy invasion, who nearly 20 years later witnessed another fateful moment in history, said today "I am more than satisfied" with the Warren Commission's findings on the Kennedy assassination.

At the same time he criticized authors of recent books seeking to disprove the commission report, saying, "This is nothing but cheap sensationalism on these people's part."

It was three years ago today that Charles F. Brehm, then 38, stood with his son less than 20 feet from President John F. Kennedy's limousine and saw him slump mortally wounded.

"I was so fascinated in looking at him I did not know anyone else was around. That's why I'm so positive of his actions," Brehm said in an interview.

Brehm was never called before the commission, which concluded that two rifle shots fired by Lee Harvey Oswald from the Texas School Book Depository just west of the downtown Dallas area struck the president. Neither were statements he gave authorities entered as exhibits.

"I see no reason why I should be called. I did not see the man who shot him. I did not see the shots fired. I don't feel that anything I would have said would have had any bearing on their outcome," he said.

Paper At Lorain Makes Proposal To LBJ In Letter

LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — The Lorain Journal has proposed to President Johnson a sort of national scholarship program which would trade education for government service.

In an open letter to Johnson, the Journal said it was proposing "a program to use the brains of intelligent youngsters of upcoming generations for the national good."

The plan outlined by Malcolm D. Hartley, editor of the editorial page, would provide selected bright youngsters the best available college education at government expense. In return, Hartley proposed repayment of one year in govrnment service for each two years of college and each year of postgraduate study. The service would be "at a modest but not miserly salary."

"The cost will be a drop in the bucket compared to federal expenditures of far less significance," Hartley wrote, "and will accent peace, not war."

The primary basis for selection for the free education should be brains—"Intelligence, determination and a burning desire to serve their fellowmen are the prime requisites."

In an open letter to Johnson, the Journal said it was proposing "a program to use the brains of intelligent youngsters of upcoming generations for the national good."

The plan outlined by Malcolm D. Hartley, editor of the editorial page, would provide selected bright youngsters the best available college education at government expense. In return, Hartley proposed repayment of one year in govrnment service for each two years of college and each year of postgraduate study. The service would be "at a modest but not miserly salary."

"The cost will be a drop in the bucket compared to federal expenditures of far less significance," Hartley wrote, "and will accent peace, not war."

The primary basis for selection for the free education should be brains—"Intelligence, determination and a burning desire to serve their fellowmen are the prime requisites."

County's School Board Takes Varied Actions

LISBON — The Columbiana County Board of Education, in a two - and -one - half-hour session Monday night at the Courthouse, discussed:

Transportation, redistricting, salary adjustments for the county staff and Southern Local's action to close three schools as the result of a levy failure.

Board members turned down Supt. J. L. McBride's request for increases for the county office staff. They said they could not justify granting raises in the face of school levy defeats throughout the county.

McBride said he sees the deterioration of the county staff unless increases are granted.

McBride reported on Southern Local's action and said he concurred in their vote to close the three buildings as hazards to the safety of students.

County board members said a report that the county board supported the action was innaccurate. McBride said he alone represented the county office when the Southern Board decided on the closing.

Donald Rupert of New Waterford reported on the annual meeting of the Ohio School Boards Association Nov. 9-11 at Columbus.

The county board authorized McBride to write a letter thanking the Columbiana County Motor Club for providing dinner for county school bus drivers during a countywide meeting last Tuesday at Beaver Local Public School.

President Allan G. Chamberlin of Leetonia R. D. 2 presided. The next meeting will be Dec. 19.

Police Arrest 17 Striking Workers

CLEVELAND (AP) — Police arrested 17 striking workers at an East Side company Monday after a firm official and a salesman claimed they were attacked as they tried to go across the picket lines.

The pickets, seven men and 10 women members of Local 1260, United Auto Workers, were charged with obstructing an entrance. All were released on personal bond and face $50 fines in Cleveland Municipal Court today.

Nearly 140 members of the union struck the Guarantee Specialty Manufacturing Co. Oct. 7. The local, organized earlier this year by the UAW, is negotiating an initial contract.

10 Treated At Hospital

A Midland boy injured on a glass door and a Salineville woman injured in a fall were among 10 area residents treated at City Hospital Monday and released.

David Barr, 13, son of Lester Barr of 600 6th St., Midland, suffered a laceration of the left wrist when his hand pushed through the pane of the door.

Mrs. Ellen Conlin of 94 W. Main St., Salineville, received an injury to the right foot when she fell after her ankle twisted.

Cynthia Phelps, daughter of Donald Phelps of 2511 St. Clair Ave., received injuries of the lower leg in a fall on the floor of a pet shop.

Supreme Court Lists Monday's Major Actions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are major actions taken Monday by the Supreme Court:

Agreed to hear arguments Dec. 5 on whether the Georgia legislature can elect the state's next governor. Arguments will be on an appeal from a ruling by a lower court, holding invalid a Georgia constitutional provision that the legislature choose between two top candidates when no candidate for governor gets a majority of the popular vote in an election.

Decided a bank must have prompt notice of bankruptcy proceedings before it may be held liable to a trustee in bankruptcy because the bank honored checks of a bankrupt depositor.

Let stand unchanged a lower court order that the Prince Edward County, Va., board of supervisors pay back $180,000 distributed in tuition grants in 1964 to private segregated schools. The money is to be returned to the county treasurer.

Refused for the second time to act on a delaware motion that challenged constitutionality of the state unit vote system of choosing presidential electors.

Lancaster Garbage Workers Off 'Sick'

LANCASTER, Ohio (AP) — The city's garbage trucks outnumbered the garbage men Monday, as all but two of the 18 sanitation department workers called in sick in an apparent protest over wages.

The head of the department and one employe manned one of the city's half dozen garbage trucks Monday. The other trucks gathered dust instead of garbage.

Safety director J. W. Brocker made a plea late Monday, asking the workmen to return to work today. But there was no indication whether the absent workers would be back.

Vandalism Incidents Damage 2 Cars Here

Two autos were damaged in separate vandalism incidents Monday, police reported.

Charles Simpson of Substation told officers a BB or a similar projectile was fired at his car about 7:35 p. m. as he drove on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd.," shattering the windshield of the 1961 model vehicle.

Mae Brown of Saline St., Irondale, reported the radio antenna was broken off her 1962 model car while it was parked on Anna St. near the Hall China Co. plant between 5:15 a. m. and 3 p. m. yesterday.

'Chain' Crash Of 3 Vehicles Injures Pair

A Midland woman and a Freedom man were injured, neither seriously, in a three - way "chain reaction" crash Monday afternoon on Pennsylvania Ave. 45 feet west of Mulberry St., police reported.

The collision involved a 1956 model four - door sedan driven by Frank Sepos, 53, of 12 East Drive, Midland; a 1962 two - door sedan operated by Mark Roknick, 39, of 1815 5th Ave., Freedom, and a 1959 model four-door sedan driven by Carl Emerson Nola, 25, of 609½ Beaver Ave., Midland.

Police said Roknick and Philomena Nola, 49, also of 609½ Beaver Ave., Midland, complained of injuries following the collision. They said they would consult their family physicians, officers reported.

Sepos told Patrolman Orin C. Smith he halted behind a tanker truck which was preparing to turn onto State St. Rocknick halted behind Sepos. Then the Roknick auto was struck from the rear by Nola's car, shoving it into the rear of the Sepos vehicle.

The collision, timed at 1:15 p. m., damaged the rear of the Sepos car, the front of the Nola vehicle and both the front and rear of the Roknick car.

Nola was cited on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

A 1959 model two - door sedan owned by Richard Springer of Calcutta was damaged in a hit - skip collision Monday at 6:15 p. m. in Laurel Ln.

The mishap was reported to police by Kenneth Delposen, a mechanic who was working on Springer's auto. Delposen said another auto hit Springer's car, damaging the right front door, and failed to stop. Delposen obtained the license number of the offending car from a witness and turned it over to the police department.

Degree Exercise Held At Chester By Odd Fellows

The third degree was conferred on new members during a meeting of Pride of Chester Lodge 245, Odd Fellows, Monday night at the lodge at 5th St. and Carolina Ave.

The initiatory degree will be conferred next Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the lodge, Robert H Edwards, secretary, announced.

Court Orders Arrest Of Man In Tax Charge

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today ordered a bench warrant for the arrest of a man who did not appear for a scheduled hearing on a charge of violating the city income tax ordinance by failure to file an estimate of 1966 earnings.

Charles W. Hughes of 930 St. Clair Ave. was due for a hearing this morning after receiving a continuance last Tuesday. The affidavit was filed by D. G. Wilkinson, income tax commissioner.

Questioned by the judge after Hughes failed to appear, the tax commissioner said the defendant had not made a settlement of his tax since receiving the continuance. The judge then ordered the bench warrant.

Danes Casting Ballots Today

COPENHAGEN (AP)—Danes voted today in national elections with non-Socialist parties claiming high hopes of ending the Socialists' 13-year control of the government.

Scrambling to put up at least a semblance of unity, the non-Socialists ended the brief but hectic election campaign Monday night with a warning that support for Premier Jens Otto Krag might mean more clearcut socialism in the years to come.

Krag, who called the snap elections three weeks ago, stuck to his original claim that he wanted only to test public opinion of his minority government's proposal to introduce a pay-as-you-earn tax system.

Since the last election in 1964, Krag had been maneuvering from compromise to compromise with non-Socialist parties, and some of the deals have not been too popular with his own party. The best guess is that Krag wants to get out of this situation — either as head of a stronger government or as head of a powerful opposition.

About 3.3 million Danes were eligible to vote. In the outgoing 175-seat Parliament, Krag's Social Democrats held 76 seats, the Conservatives and Moderate Liberals each had 36, the Radical Liberals 10, the Socialist People's party 10, independents 5 and Liberal Center 2.

Former U.S. Aide Proposes Surtax On Income Taxes

NEW YORK (AP) — Former White House economist Walter Heller advocates a temporary surtax on income taxes, the kind of increase that House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford says could be a "tragic mistake."

Both men put forward their positions Monday in speeches before the annual convention of the U.S. Savings and Loan Association.

"The conclusion is that it's time to loosen the excessively tight monetary screws and tighten the fiscal screws," said Heller, former chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers and now a member of the University of Minnesota faculty.

In suggesting a 5 per cent surtax, or tax on a tax, Heller estimated it would produce about $4½ billion in new revenues.

Ford replied: "From the business point of view, a tax increase could have its greatest impact precisely when business does not need a depressant but maybe even a pep pill. From the point of view of the worker, it would take an additional slice out of the pay checks of wage earners already hurt by sharp price increases."

Man Wrecks Car In Veering From Dogs Upon Road

A Steubenville man was injured when his car struck a bridge abutment on Route 7 after he attempted to avoid hitting dogs Monday night.

Arch T. Brobston, 68, was treated at City Hospital for a laceration of the forehead received when his 1963 sedan wrecked about two miles north of Route 30 at 8:10.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said he was headed south when he came upon the dogs on the highway and swerved. The car went off the right side of the roadway.

Officers said a rented truck struck two mail boxes along Route 45, two miles south of Salem, yesterday afternoon, but the driver failed to stop.

Driver Forfeits $40

LISBON — John J. Rodd, 18, of Canton, charged Sunday by village police with improper plates and speeding, forfeited appearance bonds of $25 and $15, respectively, in Mayor's Court.

Midland Eyes Bids On Site Boring Tests

The engineering firm of Michael Baker Jr., Inc., of Rochester requested the Midland Municipal Authority to receive bids on test borings for new reservoir sites when the authority met Monday night.

The Midland Water Department expansion project calls for a 1½-million-gallon reservoir which will be located adjacent to the 8th St. reservoir and a 150,000-gallon one which will be constructed at Midland Heights to supply the Heights and Ohioville area.

The annual bids for the coming year's chemical supply were opened and turned over to the engineer for tabulation and recommendation and will be awarded at the next meeting.

The engineer and Don Craik, secretary, will prepare a budget to be presented to the board at the January meeting.

The Trane Co. of Pittsburgh submitted a check for $106 for half of the cost of repairs on the authority's air - conditioning system.

A discussion was held on check valves for high service pumps and wash water pumps. Since the valves now in use are worn out and repair parts are not available, Craik requested the engineer to study and recommend what should be done to remedy the situation.

Bills totaling $14,848 for water, $2,495 for sewage and $81 for parking were approved.

Court Commitments Postpone Talks Again

CINCINNATI (AP) — Court commitments in the East by Attorney F. Lee Bailey has caused the University of Cincinnati to postpone for a second time a panel discussion on "Free Press-Free Trial."

It had been rescheduled for tonight after it was originally postponed earlier this month because of a snowstorm.

15 Complete Fire Classes

Finishing the classes were seven men of the Chester department, six from Newell and two from Lawrenceville.

Lewis E. Miles of Morgantown, state training officer, administered the final West Virginia University extension service examination, lasting 1½ hours.

Special appreciation was extended to Buss Farmer of Burgettstown, for filling fire extinguishers; Hays Oil Co. of East Liverpool, for contributing fuel oil, and Globe Brick Co. and Miller Brothers of Newell, for the use of property for classes.

Court Commitments Postpone Talks Again

CINCINNATI (AP) — Court commitments in the East by Attorney F. Lee Bailey has caused the University of Cincinnati to postpone for a second time a panel discussion on "Free Press-Free Trial."

It had been rescheduled for tonight after it was originally postponed earlier this month because of a snowstorm.

15 Complete Fire Classes

Finishing the classes were seven men of the Chester department, six from Newell and two from Lawrenceville.

Lewis E. Miles of Morgantown, state training officer, administered the final West Virginia University extension service examination, lasting 1½ hours.

Special appreciation was extended to Buss Farmer of Burgettstown, for filling fire extinguishers; Hays Oil Co. of East Liverpool, for contributing fuel oil, and Globe Brick Co. and Miller Brothers of Newell, for the use of property for classes.

Complex System Lands Plane Without Pilot's Help

ABOARD USS AMERICA (AP) — The jet fighter-bomber touched down on the aircraft carrier's landing deck, snagged a cable and screeched to a sudden stop — a noisy but perfect landing. The pilot had nothing to do with it.

The F4 combat plane was landed safely Monday on the America, the nation's newest flattop, by a complex system of radar and computers operated by a control center deep inside the ship.

The revolutionary, "Look ma, no hands" concept is being developed in a hurry by the Navy, seeking to reduce landing accidents at night and in foul weather during Southeast Asia operations.

The system, expected to undergo final operational tests next spring, has a secondary purpose: to make it easier for carrier pilots to qualify for night flying and thus ease the growing shortage of carrier attack pilots in Viet Nam.

Known as the All-Weather Carrier Landing System — ACLS — it works this way:

As the pilot begins his approach to the carrier, radar and computers provide precise data on the plane's position. This, along with data on the roll, pitch and yaw of the landing deck, is relayed to a computer that calcultes the movement of the carrier and the desired position of the plane as it begins its descent and actually lands.

The computer sends precise commands to the plane, which are converted into signals that drive the automatic pilot for a safe "hands off" landing.

The Navy's first public demonstration of the landing system was made relatively simple Monday by the calm seas and clear skies of the Atlantic Ocean. But officials said the device can work even in the foulest of weather, when the landing deck sometimes rises and falls 60 feet.

Health Officials Caution Against Food Poisoning

As a guard against food poisoning, the city Health Department urges special care in the preparation of the Thanksgiving meal.

With correct handling, officials pointed out that salmonella and other organisms which cause food poisoning can be controlled. There are some of the suggestions:

"Special attention should be paid to raw chicken and other poultry, since these organisms normally live in the intestines of poultry and get into a few poultry eggs before they are laid.

"Frozen meat and poultry should be thawed in the refrigerator instead of sitting out at room temperature containers in which they are stored or thawed should be thoroughly cleaned.

"Cracked or broken eggs should be used only in foods which will be thoroughly cooked as not all parts of eggs which are soft cooked reach the 160-degree temperature necessary to kill salmonella organisms. Baked products, cakes, etc., do reach this temperature.

"Children should not be allowed to lick the mixing bowls and spoons.

"Stuff your bird and just before roasting. In a large turkey, if it has been stuffed and refrigerated over night, the desired temperature at the center may not be reached by the time the meat is cooked.

"Refrigerate perishables promptly and place leftovers into the refrigerator without waiting for the food to reach room temperature."

Split Reported In Red Guards

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Peking's Red Guards have split into opposing groups struggling to control the Communist youth movement, the Yugoslav news agency Tanjug said today.

Tanjug said Peking's Red Guards paper "East is Red" identified the groups as the revolutionary insurgents, who consider themselves the only true representatives of Mao Tse-tung, and an older outfit labeled Royalists.

The Red Guards paper, reporting on a fight between the groups at a textile factory Sept. 11, urged dissolution of the Royalist unit, Tanjug's correspondent in Peking said.

The paper said similar incidents are occurring in many factories and the struggle between the two groups is acute.

Reynolds Named New Manager At Goodyear Store

Reynolds started with Goodyear in 1957 at the local store. After two years, he was transferred to Wheeling and later served at Bellevue, Pa., and East Liberty, Pittsburgh.

He returned briefly to East Liverpool, then served as store manager at Beaver Falls the past 18 months prior to again coming here.

He is a graduate of the former Wells High School at Newell. Married, he has four children and resides in Chester with his family.

3 Hurt, Damage Heavy In Accident At Lisbon

LISBON — Three were injured and property damage was high in a traffic accident involving a moving car and two parked sedans at 5:35 p. m. Monday in front of the Bacon & Cibula Clinic on E. Lincoln Way.

The clinic's parked 1966 sedan was demolished.

Treated at the clinic were Linda Mathews, 18, Brookfield Ave., Lisbon R. D. 2, and her passengers, Mrs. Patsy Sekerka, 36, and son, William Sekerka, 2, her neighbors on R. D. 2. They received contusions of the face.

Policeman Richard Koffel said the other parked car was a 1965 sedan owned by Arnold Padgett, East Palestine R. D. 1. His car and the clinic sedan were headed east and were unoccupied.

Police estimated $200 damage to the Padgett car and $700 damage to the car Miss Mathews was driving — a 1965 sedan owned by Rudolph Novak of Lisbon R. D. 2.

Police said Miss Matthews told them she was driving east and must have veered as she reached to grab the little boy. She struck the rear end of the clinic's car and knocked it forward 15 feet into the Padgett vehicle, police said. The impact knocked the Padgett car over the curb.

Miss Mathews was charged with reckless operation. Police said she told them she would forfeit a $25 appearance bond today.

New Cabin Cruiser Explodes And Burns

CLEVELAND (AP) — Three hours after he had picked up his new $17,000 cabin cruiser at Sandusky and sailed it here Monday George D. Cross of Strongsville watched it burn and sink in Lake Erie.

Cross, 34, and two companions, suffered first and second-degree burns when the boat exploded and burned.

Second Life Claimed At Construction Site

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)— A second accident at an Armco Steel Corp. construction site has claimed a second life in three days.

James B. Gable, 20, died Monday after he fell 40 feet. Last Friday, Harold Durst, 36, of near Troy, was hit on the head by a steel beam. He died Saturday.

Third Life Claimed By Defective Heater

CINCINNATI (AP) — Fumes from a defective space heater, which killed two men 10 days ago, have claimed a third life.

Mrs. Lola Davis, 74, who was hospitalized Nov 12, died Monday. Police broke into the apartment then and found the bodies of Paul Davis, 36, and Kelbert Kramer, 26.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Readers: In Monday's column I printed a collection of letters from angry wives who roasted, toasted and broiled their "money-hungry, power-mad, egocentric Wall Street Warriors" for expending their energies on the financial and professional battlefield and leaving nothing for the Home Front.

The letters were in response to a plea from a tired businessman. He wrote, "Life is rough in the asphalt jungle. Competition is terrific. When I come home at night after a murderous day at the office my wife gets suspicious if I don't get excited at the sight of her bending over the kitchen sink. She thinks maybe I've got a dame some place."

Today's letter, in my opinion, is the best and most incisive response I've had. It's for all "Wall Street Warriors." Here it is:

Warrior's Wife

"DEAR ANN LANDERS: I have been married to a 'Wall Street Warrior' for more than 20 years so I feel qualified to speak about the successful business or professional man who willingly (perhaps eagerly) sacrifices his husband-father role in exchange for the exhilaration and the rewards of the Market Place.

"These men would not have it any other way. The excitement of the daily battle on the Professional Front or the Money Front is sufficiently ego-warming and stimulating that they don't need anything else to fill their lives.

"Because their values are warped (this happened long before marriage) these men lack the true understanding of what a husband-wife relationship ought to be. If his wife becomes cold from waiting, or if a wife resorts to a part-time replacement because she is lonely, the 'Warrior' couldn't care less.

"HE IS relieved that he doesn't have to bother with her because he has already discovered younger and more fascinating substitutes in his work, or in the cities he visits —on business, of course.

"Sex to him has nothing to do with love. He doesn't even try to kid himself, as women often do. Intimacy outside of marriage means fun with no commitment. Moreover it's a great morale booster for the middle-aged male who wonders if he's losing his punch.

"THE 'WARRIOR' lives in a world of work and he adores it. Even his play must in some way be related to his work. A wife and children do not belong in this world. Anyone who cannot contribute to his battle gains is relegated to the periphery.

"No one will ever persuade me that a lack of interest in the marriage bed stems from working too hard. This bit of folklore was invented by a man who must have known better.

"And anyone who regards this problem as a problem of the rich, had better think again. It exists at every economic level. The man who has spent himself elsewhere and is tired when he comes home, got that way because he chose to.

"AFTER YEARS of loneliness and soul - searching ("Where did I fail?") I confess that I wish I had married another kind of man I would gladly forego my large home, the cars in the garage, my fine furs and jewelry and the club memberships in exchange for a husband who will attend church with his family, show some interest in our children and be available for the little confidences that can make marriage the special relationship that God intended it to be. Just sign me— LOST: ONE HOME-FRONT. GAINED: MUCH INSIGHT.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Folks:: You all are always writing to me wanting to know how to stretch pork chops, veal cutlets, rib-eye steaks, etc.

I just learned a terrific way to do this so that it will stretch for more than one person.

Take your pounder (that's the little gadget you buy at your dime store). And, for goodness sake, if you don't have one, go buy one (they cost less than a dollar), and mash or beat on that little rib-eye steak or deboned pork shop, etc., until it is flat. (I usually put my meat down on the piece of plastic it came in and do my beating on that.)

The meat will expand to about twice the original size.

Furthermore, every time you beat it with the pounder (using the little, pointed ends), you break up that tough connective tissue in the meat and make it even more tender.

ANOTHER THING I learned (after trying this about 10 times on one piece of rib-eye steak) was that after pounding the meat, folding it over and pounding it more, I could take a sharp paring knife, and cut the meat into squares (these will not really be squares, but hunks of meat), then fry them.

Don't you ever think these aren't good in place of meat balls on spaghetti; and they make a luscious dinner when chicken-fried, steamed in gravy and poured over a pound of rice or noodles! It's out of this world.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I bought wall - to - wall carpeting for my bathroom.

There was some left over, so I cut it to fit the width and length of the toilet tank and sewed elastic on the bottom and around the top, and made my own cover.

Also, I took some and made an extra seat cover. It made a lovely bathroom.

MRS. PETRARCA.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: Today, my husband decided to give me a day off, and he is going to fix dinner.

This gives me a perfect time to write.

Only one thing more before I sign off . . . if I ever find out why my husband decided to give me the day off, I will be able to write you and let you in on the household hint of the year. Ha! Ha!

We'll all be waiting for this hint.

YOUR FRIEND HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Love your tip on washing the mop under the washer drain hose, by placing it in a bucket in the wash tub and letting all the drain waters run over it.

It's also good for brooms, and the first rinse for rags that are too dirty for the washer.

MRS. FRANK MCVEIGH.

DEAR HELOISE: When I remove my hearing aid at night, I put it near the edge of the dresser, with the earpiece hanging over, and a paper weight between the transmitter and the edge of the dresser to keep it from dropping off.

The weight of the earpiece keeps the cord pulled straight and by morning the almost-bends in it are straightened out.

MARGARET THOMPSON.

DEAR HELOISE: My vacuum cleaner is bulky and heavy, and doesn't have casters on it.

I made a skate board, using a piece of board cut to size, I put casters on each corner and padded the sides.

This moves around easily (with the vacuum cleaner on it, and doesn't mark up polished floors.

MRS. E. J. LOVELY.

Final Arguments Set

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)— Final arguments were to be heard today in the first-degree murder trial of Earl Callihan, accused in the June 13 shooting here of boarding house operator Mrs. June Chisholm, 53.

Democrats Due To Name House Minority Leaders

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Democratic state representatives-elect meet here today to pick house minority leaders for the 1967 legislature convening Jan. 2.

A. G. Lancione, Bellaire attorney and Democratic Floor Leader last session, claimed sufficient support to turn back a challenge from Frank R. Pokorny, Clevland actuary, in advance of the caucus.

Democrats elected 37 of the 99 members in the revamped House. Although official selection of party leaders will be made after legislators convene, caucus selections are tantamount to election.

Richard M. Christiansen of Mansfield appeared unchallenged for the post of Democratic House Whip which he held last session.

Republicans will caucus Nov. 29 with Robert Reckman of Cincinnati, acting House Speaker, locked in a contest with Charles F. Kurfess of Bowling Green for the top post of speaker in the new session.

West Virginia seceded from Virginia in 1861.

Mrs. John Hayes Elected To Post

Mrs. John W. Hayes of East Liverpool is the new recording secretary of the Auxiliary to the American Osteopathic Association which met at New Orleans in conjunction with the annual association convention.

Her husband is president of the association.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Readers: In Monday's column I printed a collection of letters from angry wives who roasted, toasted and broiled their "money-hungry, power-mad, egocentric Wall Street Warriors" for expending their energies on the financial and professional battlefield and leaving nothing for the Home Front.

The letters were in response to a plea from a tired businessman. He wrote, "Life is rough in the asphalt jungle. Competition is terrific. When I come home at night after a murderous day at the office my wife gets suspicious if I don't get excited at the sight of her bending over the kitchen sink. She thinks maybe I've got a dame some place."

Today's letter, in my opinion, is the best and most incisive response I've had. It's for all "Wall Street Warriors." Here it is:

Warrior's Wife

"DEAR ANN LANDERS: I have been married to a 'Wall Street Warrior' for more than 20 years so I feel qualified to speak about the successful business or professional man who willingly (perhaps eagerly) sacrifices his husband-father role in exchange for the exhilaration and the rewards of the Market Place.

"These men would not have it any other way. The excitement of the daily battle on the Professional Front or the Money Front is sufficiently ego-warming and stimulating that they don't need anything else to fill their lives.

"Because their values are warped (this happened long before marriage) these men lack the true understanding of what a husband-wife relationship ought to be. If his wife becomes cold from waiting, or if a wife resorts to a part-time replacement because she is lonely, the 'Warrior' couldn't care less.

"HE IS relieved that he doesn't have to bother with her because he has already discovered younger and more fascinating substitutes in his work, or in the cities he visits —on business, of course.

"Sex to him has nothing to do with love. He doesn't even try to kid himself, as women often do. Intimacy outside of marriage means fun with no commitment. Moreover it's a great morale booster for the middle-aged male who wonders if he's losing his punch.

"THE 'WARRIOR' lives in a world of work and he adores it. Even his play must in some way be related to his work. A wife and children do not belong in this world. Anyone who cannot contribute to his battle gains is relegated to the periphery.

"No one will ever persuade me that a lack of interest in the marriage bed stems from working too hard. This bit of folklore was invented by a man who must have known better.

"And anyone who regards this problem as a problem of the rich, had better think again. It exists at every economic level. The man who has spent himself elsewhere and is tired when he comes home, got that way because he chose to.

"AFTER YEARS of loneliness and soul - searching ("Where did I fail?") I confess that I wish I had married another kind of man. I would gladly forego my large home, the cars in the garage, my fine furs and jewelry and the club memberships in exchange for a husband who will attend church with his family, show some interest in our children and be available for the little confidences that can make marriage the special relationship that God intended it to be. Just sign me— LOST: ONE HOME-FRONT. GAINED: MUCH INSIGHT.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Folks:: You all are always writing to me wanting to know how to stretch pork chops, veal cutlets, rib-eye steaks, etc.

I just learned a terrific way to do this so that it will stretch for more than one person.

Take your pounder (that's the little gadget you buy at your dime store). And, for goodness sake, if you don't have one, go buy one (they cost less than a dollar), and mash or beat on that little rib-eye steak or deboned pork shop, etc., until it is flat. (I usually put my meat down on the piece of plastic it came in and do my beating on that.)

The meat will expand to about twice the original size.

Furthermore, every time you beat it with the pounder (using the little, pointed ends), you break up that tough connective tissue in the meat and make it even more tender.

ANOTHER THING I learned (after trying this about 10 times on one piece of rib-eye steak) was that after pounding the meat, folding it over and pounding it more, I could take a sharp paring knife, and cut the meat into squares (these will not really be squares, but hunks of meat), then fry them.

Don't you ever think these aren't good in place of meat balls on spaghetti; and they make a luscious dinner when chicken-fried, steamed in gravy and poured over a pound of rice or noodles! It's out of this world.

This is how to make one steak expand to feed others!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I bought wall - to - wall carpeting for my bathroom.

There was some left over, so I cut it to fit the width and length of the toilet tank and sewed elastic on the bottom and around the top, and made my own cover.

Also, I took some and made an extra seat cover. It made a lovely bathroom.

DEAR HELOISE: Love your tip on washing the mop under the washer drain hose, by placing it in a bucket in the wash tub and letting all the drain waters run over it.

It's also good for brooms, and the first rinse for rags that are too dirty for the washer.

DEAR HELOISE: When I remove my hearing aid at night, I put it near the edge of the dresser, with the earpiece hanging over, and a paper weight between the transmitter and the edge of the dresser to keep it from dropping off.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN HORN

Back From The Stone Age

It's not every situation comedy that can reverse direction in midseason. Most get one chance. Then it's champagne for everyone or curtains.

But "It's About Time," the Imogene Coca show on CBS, has done it.

In mid-January the two astronauts (Frank Aletter and Jack Mullaney) who broke through the time barrier and found themselves in the Stone Age will repair their space ship somehow and return to the 20th century with a handful of primitives.

Thereafter the joke will be Caveman adjusting to Civilization.

"I can sing, talk, question people, reminisce—on any subject the housewife wants to talk about," she said the other day.

She was in New York to promote her "Hollywood Palace" appearance next Saturday with Bing Crosby.

"The way Crosby acts, I swear he owns some of "Hollywood Palace,' " she said over a yellow sweater she was knitting for herself. She was in a short sheath she called a Phyllis Diller dress. She apologized for it.

"I like to wear feminine clothes."

HER TV ACTIVITY—"I've never retired, you know"—was not as active as she'd like

Upcoming are another "Hollywood Palace," Dean Martin and "Girl Talk," but Miss Lamour—accompanied by her husband, Bob Howard, who's in the food business ("everybody eats")—has her eye on "The Fugitive," "Batman," "Peyton Place" and "The FBI.'

She made her last movie, "Donovans Reef," five or six years ago, and doesn't cotton to current film fashion.

"I won't play an alcoholic, dope fiend, or madame in a house. My fans won't accept it. And I'm not a prude."

"YOU COULDN'T be—working with Crosby and Hope," her husband said with a laugh.

"You stole my line," Miss Lamour replied.

She has a very loyal following, she said, of children, mothers, grandmothers, maybe even great-grandmothers. She gets mail every TV appearance and every time an old movie of hers is telecast. An album she recorded in 1938 brought in $1,500 royalties last year.

Her older son, Ridge, 20, whom she visited during a USO tour of Guantanamo last year, she'll have you know, is now a Marine lance corporal up for corporal. Inviting her to visit, he had asked, "When is the old lady going to bring her show down?"

The Howards have made their home in Baltimore for the last eight years. He likes to watch her old movies on TV. She prefers Joan Crawford.

WHEN the Peter Jennings ABC newscast goes to a half hour and color Jan. 9, Howard K. Smith will have a daily spot on it with Washington hard news and analysis. Smith also continues as host of the weekly half-hour, "ABC Scope: The Viet Nam War."

David Oppenheim, who produced hours on Pablo Casals and Igor Stravinsky, is working now on a CBS show that has the working title of "Inside Pop," a look at musical values in the Beatles and other pop phenomena.

Bill Leonard, CBS vice president in charge of news programming, is off on an Asian tour. He'll visit bureaus in Tokyo, Hong Kong, Saigon and Bangkok, and talk to people in government and U.S. foreign service people in Japan, Taiwan, Malaysia, Indonesia, Thailand, India and Pakistan. He left 10 days ago and won't be back at his New York desk until Dec. 12. Purpose of the trip is to familiarize himself with areas constantly covered in programs he must make decisions about. One such program, about U.S. wheat shipments to India, will be telecast Dec. 20.

Producer Arthur Barron and Cameraman Walter Dombrow are shooting on-location footage that will evoke the spirit of "Moby Dick," "Main Street" and "Grapes of Wrath." The result will be a CBS hour documentary on "The Great American Novel," with a narrator yet to be selected reading from passages of Herman Melville, Sinclair Lewis and John Steinbeck. Air date is next spring.

WILLIAM E. LYNCH
Assumes New Duties.

Lynch Appointed To New Position At Midland Mill

William E. Lynch Jr. has been appointed assistant division superintendent - bar products at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co., Guy F. McCracken, assistant vice president-production, announced today.

Lynch formerly served as superintendent - bloom and bar rolling, a position he was appointed to in 1965.

He joined the Midland Works in 1933 and held various positions in the Blooming Mill. He was appointed assistant superintendent in 1950, superintendent in 1959 and superintendent-blooming mill and primary conditioning in 1963.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynch and their three daughters reside in Beaver.

Mrs. Granahan Resigns Post As U.S. Treasurer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Kathryn O'Hay Granahan, whose signature appears on the lower left hand corner of the nation's paper money, has resigned as treasurer of the United States.

There was no immediate White House comment on Mrs. Granahan's action, disclosed Monday when the Treasury Department released in respnose to an inquiry a letter of resignation she had written Oct. 13 and a reply dated last Wednesday by Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler.

Mrs. Granahan, a former House member from Pennsylvania, assumed the $25,380-a-year post in January 1963 after her appointment by President John F. Kennedy, but had been ill since May 1965.

In her letter of resignation to President Johnson, Mrs. Granahan said she had been injured in a fall "while performing my duties as treasurer" but said she had hoped to return to the job.

"Since I have not been permitted to return to my office, I submit my resignation rather than hold this important position without performing its duties," she wrote.

Suicide ranks 10th among the causes of death among American adults.

Turkey And All The Trimmings

Americans In Viet Due Big Meal Thanksgiving

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. fighting man in Viet Nam, described as the best fed in American wartime history, will get a hearty dinner of roast turkey with trimmings Thanksgiving Day.

It ought to be enough to make the Viet Cong cry.

In contrast with the Communists' basic diet of rice and fish, American troops in Southeast Asia will be getting a hot holiday meal consisting of:

Turkey with giblet gravy.
Bread dressing.
Cranberry sauce.
Candied sweet potatoes.
Mixed vegetables.

And assorted relishes, hot rolls with margarine or butter, mincemeat or pumpkin pie, fruit and candy, plus coffee, tea or milk.

This is the Thanksgiving menu laid out for American soldiers, sailors, airmen and Marines around the world, including the war theater.

Compare that with the basic fare of the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong of about 1.5 pounds daily of rice, salt, fish and nuoc mam (fish sauce).

Paul R. Ignatius, assistant secretary of defense for installations and logistics, said over 88 per cent of the meals served in Viet Nam are hot meals with fresh meat, vegetables and other fresh food items. Seven per cent are heated canned foods. Only 5 per cent are field combat rations.

He said food is being provided to U.S. troops at a rate of about seven pounds per man per day, including 30 ounces of milk per man.

"I think that without question the troops are being fed better than those in any war in history," Ignatius said.

Laid Off In Current Cutbacks

Idle Auto Workers Due 62% Of Pay For 6 Months

DETROIT (AP) — Auto workers laid off in current industry cutbacks can count on receiving at least 62 per cent of their wages for up to six months.

Even after that, a man with two years' seniority could draw $50 weekly, plus $1.50 a week for each dependent up to four, for six more months.

These were among layoff safeguards written into current contracts in 1964 bargaining between the four top automakers and the United Auto Workers Union. Some within the UAW equate them with a guaranteed annual wage.

None of the manufacturers has indicated how many would be laid off in their investory balancing shuffle. General Motors announced last week December and January production would be sliced 8.1 per cent.

Ward's Automotive Reports, an industry statistical agency, reported in mid-month that the four top producers were trimming back their planned November production by 58,000 cars.

If General Motors were to slice its hourly rated work force of 430,000 by 8.1 per cent in December and January to match production slowdown, that would result in a cut of 38,700 men.

The layoff backstops are provided by what is known as a "supplemental unemployment benefit fund," or "SUB."

Combined SUB funds now total more than $332 million.

SUB, up to a maximum of $50 weekly, is paid on top of regular state unemployment compensation to assure a worker 62 per cent of his wage for the 26-week limit of government assistance.

Election Planned By Firefighters

A nominating committee was appointed during the board meeting of the East Liverpool Dahlia and Floral Society Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leughmyer of 601-15th St., Wellsville.

The committee includes Leo C. Lawrence, chairman, Robert C. Hay and J. T. Eccleston. A slate of officers will be presented during the Dec. 12 meeting at the Potters Savings and Loan Co. annex. The program will include movies by Frank Richmond, a discussion on horticultural and a question - and - answer period on garden problems.

Wallet, $30 Taken While Woman Shops

An East Liverpool woman told police her wallet containing $30 was stolen from her purse while she shopped in the downtown area Monday.

Mrs. Mary Davis of Francis St. reported the loss at 3:35 p.m. She said she did not know where the theft occurred, since she had shopped in various stores. In addition to the currency, the wallet contained a 1906 50-cent piece and a check book, she said.

Mrs. Davis initially reported the theft of $140. However, when she returned home she discovered that $110 that she believed stolen actually was not in the wallet, police explained.

Canada has two official languages — English and French.

Revival Services To Begin Tonight At Area Church

The Rev. Paul J. Stewart of Jasper, Ala., will be the evangelist during the revival services at the West Point Church of the Nazarene beginning tonight at 7:30 and continuing nightly through Nov. 27.

Rev. Stewart has served many years as pastor and evangelist.

He is the author of several books, for a time wrote a weekly newspaper column and conducted a daily radio broadcast.

His sermon, "God Bless America," was printed in the Congressional Record of March 1955 and is now available on a long-playing record.

He promoted and organized a boys' club, "The Straight Shooters," and was recognized because of his work with the underpriviledged.

The Rev. L. D. Smith is pastor.

Air Force Lists Its Openings For Ex-Servicemen

Staff Sgt. Ray Stanley, local recruiter, has announced that the Air Force now has openings for prior servicemen in 184 different job areas.

These openings are available for former members of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines or Coast Guard at both specialist and supervisory levels.

Many veterans now may enlist in the Air Force in the same rank as that held at time of discharge.

Sgt. Stanley said "within minutes after a former serviceman is determined as qualified, I can find out by telephone if a vacancy exists in his job specialty, where it exists, and what grade it calls for."

Additional information about the specialist recruiting program may be obtained by calling 282-USAF in Steubenville, or by dropping a card to the recruiting office at 630 Market St., Steubenville.

Lighting Bids Received At Beaver Local

Estimates for providing fluorescent lighting in some Beaver Local School District School classrooms were reported at a meeting of the board of education Monday night.

Supt. Roy Cashdollar reported on tentative bids received from three firms for the lighting project considered for some rooms which do not now have the newer lighting fixtures.

The firms and bids are: Sayre Electric of East Liverpool, $435 a room; Firestone Electric Co. of Salem, $512 a room, and The Lampost of East Liverpool, $275 a room.

No action was taken.

The board authorized Cashdollar to sell a 10-year-old sedan which has been used by the district for about six years as a service auto for the bus garage.

Application was approved for Title Three funds for three microscopes to be used for high school biology classes at a total of $442.

Richard Lynch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lynch of McCoy Ave. a ninth-grader, was granted permission to leave school early daily for work reasons.

The next meeting will be Dec. 5.

Out Of The Air

Back From The Stone Age

It's not every situation comedy that can reverse direction in midseason. Most get one chance. Then it's champagne for everyone or curtains.

But "It's About Time," the Imogene Coca show on CBS, has done it.

In mid-January the two astronauts (Frank Aletter and Jack Mullaney) who broke through the time barrier and found themselves in the Stone Age will repair their space ship somehow and return to the 20th century with a handful of primitives.

Thereafter the joke will be Caveman adjusting to Civilization.

"I can sing, talk, question people, reminisce—on any subject the housewife wants to talk about," she said the other day.

She was in New York to promote her "Hollywood Palace" appearance next Saturday with Bing Crosby.

"The way Crosby acts, I swear he owns some of "Hollywood Palace,' " she said over a yellow sweater she was knitting for herself. She was in a short sheath she called a Phyllis Diller dress. She apologized for it.

HER TV ACTIVITY—"I've never retired, you know"—was not as active as she'd like

Upcoming are another "Hollywood Palace," Dean Martin and "Girl Talk," but Miss Lamour—accompanied by her husband, Bob Howard, who's in the food business ("everybody eats")—has her eye on "The Fugitive," "Batman," "Peyton Place" and "The FBI."

She made her last movie, "Donovans Reef," five or six years ago, and doesn't cotton to current film fashion.

"I won't play an alcoholic, dope fiend, or madame in a house. My fans won't accept it. And I'm not a prude."

"YOU COULDN'T be—working with Crosby and Hope," her husband said with a laugh.

"You stole my line," Miss Lamour replied.

She has a very loyal following, she said, of children, mothers, grandmothers, maybe even great-grandmothers. She gets mail every TV appearance and every time an old movie of hers is telecast. An album she recorded in 1938 brought in $1,500 royalties last year.

Her older son, Ridge, 20, whom she visited during a USO tour of Guantanamo last year, she'll have you know, is now a Marine lance corporal up for corporal. Inviting her to visit, he had asked, "When is the old lady going to bring her show down?"

The Howards have made their home in Baltimore for the last eight years. He likes to watch her old movies on TV. She prefers Joan Crawford.

WHEN the Peter Jennings ABC newscast goes to a half hour and color Jan. 9, Howard K. Smith will have a daily spot on it with Washington hard news and analysis. Smith also continues as host of the weekly half-hour, "ABC Scope: The Viet Nam War."

David Oppenheim, who produced hours on Pablo Casals and Igor Stravinsky, is working now on a CBS show that has the working title of "Inside Pop," a look at musical values in the Beatles and other pop phenomena.

Bill Leonard, CBS vice president in charge of news programming, is off on an Asian tour. He'll visit bureaus in Tokyo, Hong Kong, Saigon and Bangkok, and talk to people in government and U.S. foreign service people in Japan, Taiwan, Malaysia, Indonesia, Thailand, India and Pakistan. He left 10 days ago and won't be back at his New York desk until Dec. 12. Purpose of the trip is to familiarize himself with areas constantly covered in programs he must make decisions about. One such program, about U.S. wheat shipments to India, will be telecast Dec. 20.

Producer Arthur Barron and Cameraman Walter Dombrow are shooting on-location footage that will evoke the spirit of "Moby Dick," "Main Street" and "Grapes of Wrath." The result will be a CBS hour documentary on "The Great American Novel," with a narrator yet to be selected reading from passages of Herman Melville, Sinclair Lewis and John Steinbeck. Air date is next spring.

Notre Dame Noses Out MSU In Grid Poll By 3 Points

Parseghian Claims Team Deserves It

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ara Parseghian took it all in stride but Duffy Daugherty is beginning to feel persecuted.

Parseghian's Notre Dame football team edged out Daugherty's Michigan State club by a scant three points in this week's Associated Press college poll after they fought to a 10-10 tie last Saturday. It was one of the closest counts in the history of the poll.

"We were ranked No. 1 last week," Parseghian said on hearing the news, "and Michigan State didn't beat us, and I think we deserve to be on top again."

Daugherty, however, was not convinced.

"I would hope that as the writers take time to reflect," he said, "they would reward this great gang of Spartans for their great effort in the last two seasons."

"No one could be more worthy than this group that played like champions and fought right down to the wire."

This was the second year in a row that Michigan State has had its troubles with the poll. Last season, the Spartans were ranked first at the end of the regular season but were replaced by Alabama when they lost to UCLA, 14-12, in the Rose Bowl.

Notre Dame received 556 points in the poll to Michigan State's 553. The Irish had 23 first place votes to 13 for the Spartans with 14 ballots naming both teams in a tie for first place. Points are awarded on the basis of 10 for a first-place vote, nine for second, etc.

But Michigan State made the count close with 27 second-place votes against 15 for the Irish. Alabama was third with 467 points and eight first-place votes and Nebraska was fourth with 401 points and a lone first-place ballot.

The rest of the Top Ten were Georgia Tech fifth, UCLA sixth, Georgia seventh, Purdue eighth, Florida ninth and Southern California 10th.

Michigan State is through for the season but Notre Dame's hopes for continuing in first place depend on its meeting with Southern California Saturday in Los Angeles.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parenthesis, and total points:

1.	Notre Dame (37)	556
2.	Michigan State (27)	553
3.	Alabama (8)	467

NBA To Have 12-Club Loop In 1970-71

NEW YORK (AP) — There will be 12 teams in the National Basketball Association next season and 18 in 1970-71.

The expansion move was dictated by a heightened interest from cities desiring an NBA franchise and a professional market survey that revealed growing potential in many new cities for major league basketball, Commissioner Walter Kennedy said Monday at the loop's fall meeting.

The NBA, which expanded to 10 teams this season with the addition of Chicago, will add two more clubs in 1967-68 and two more for each of three seasons after that.

Kennedy listed, in alphabetical order, the cities under consideration for franchises:

Atlanta; Cleveland; Dallas-Fort Worth, Tex.; Houston, Kansas City; Minneapolis, Minn.; New Orleans, La.; Phoenix, Ariz.; Pittsburgh; San Diego, Calif.; Seattle, Wash. and Washington.

"Under primary consideration for the first two franchises are Seattle, Pittsburgh, Cleveland and San Diego," Kennedy said.

In other action Monday, the playoff system was revised.

The first four teams in each of the five-club divisions will be eligible for the playoffs, with the first place team playing the third place team and the second meeting the fourth in best-of-5 series. The survivors will then meet in best-of-7 sets, and the division winners will play a best-of-7 for the league championship.

Before the addition of a 10th team, the first three finishers in each division made the playoffs.

West Virginia Sees Record Deer Season

CHARLESTON (AP) — Several thousand deer hunters jammed West Virginia's forests Monday for the opening of what was expected to be the largest deer season on record for the state.

State Natural Resources Department officials estimated "upwards of 100,000 deer hunters" were expected to "stomp through the woods Monday."

First-day reports showed the state was free of fatal shooting mishaps in connection with the hunting season.

Of the 100,000 anticipated hunters, state officials said 90,000 would walk the non-private hills while another 10,000 would hunt on their own or closed property.

Four counties and parts of five more are closed for the current firearms deer season. Off limits are: Boone (west of U.S. 119), Fayette (south of the New River), Kanawha (south of U.S. 60); Lincoln, McDowell (east of W.Va. 16), Mercer, Putnam (south of U.S. 60) and Wayne.

Open only through Nov. 26 are: Boone (east of U.S. 119), Logan, McDowell (west of W. Va. 16), Mingo, Raleigh, Summers and Wymong.

Open through Dec. 3 are: Barbour, Braxton, Brooke, Clay, Fayette (north of New River), Greenbrier (west of U.S. 219), Hancock, Harrison, Jackson, Kanwha (north of U.S. 60), Marion, Marshall, Mason, Nicholas, Ohio, Pleasants, Oocahontas (west of U.S. 219) Putnam (north of U.S. 60), Randolph, Roane, Taylor, Tucker, Upshur, Webster and Wood.

A special hunter's choice season will be held Dec. 2 and 3 in the following counties: Berkeley, Calhoun, Doddridge, Gilmer Grant, Greenbrier (east of U.S. 219), Hampshire, Hardy, Jefferson, Lewis, Mineral, Monongalia Monroe, Logan, Pendleton, Pocahontas (east of U.S. 219), Preston, Ritchie, Tyler, Wetzel and Wirt.

Chiefs Hold To Big Offense Lead In AFL

NEW YORK (AP) — Kansas City, doing most of its traveling along the ground, continues to hold a wide edge in total offense in the American Football League.

Statistics released by the AFL today show the Chiefs averaging 361.1 yards per game—a shade less than 33 yards per game more than second place Buffalo. Veteran Bert Coan and rookie Mike Garrett carry the brunt of the Kansas City running game, which is averaging 151.3 yards per game—almost 14 more than second-place Boston.

Oakland leads the league in total defense, yielding 250.3 yards per game, 1.4 yards less than New York.

Chuvalo-Terrell Title Match Looms For 1967

By WHITEY SAWYER

The way they were talking, and acting, around Cobo Arena Monday night that's the way Chuvalo and Terrell think it might be next year.

"The date that they have been talking about is Feb. 6," Terrell said, "but that isn't official until they decide on a site and the contracts are drawn."

He said an offer had been made to hold the fight in Detroit and he was impressed, "because they were talking with money and that speaks loud and clear."

Chuvalo ran his record to 33-11-2 Monday night by pounding out a third - round technical knockout over Boston Jacobs of New York. The Canadian champion outweighed his opponent 210 to 186 and completely outclassed him.

Chuvalo's handlers contend the Canadian is much improved since he dropped a 15-round decision to Clay. They claim the winner of the Terrell-Clay fight should give Chuvalo another chance at the title.

According to Terrell, he's going to be the winner. "I see an incomplete fighter (in Clay)," he said. "He's fought a lot of washed up fighters, but he can't handle a good, young man. Chuvalo, with two weeks' training, fought him a tough fight. I plan to beat him."

Terrell, who holds the World Boxing Association version of the title, is 26. He has a 39-4 record.

Washington State's Star Sets Cross Country Record

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — Little Gerry Lindgren, Washington State's 20-year-old Olympian, won the 28th NCAA Cross Country Championships in course record time Monday, then scoffed at the idea he might burn himself out at an early age.

"Your mental attitude is everything," Lindgren said. "If you still enjoy the challenge, you can go on. I don't see how you can set a certain age for a physical peak."

Lindgren's time of 29:01.4 on the hilly, six-mile Kansas course smashed the course record set by John Lawson of Kansas last year by a whopping 22.6 seconds. Tracy Smith of Oregon State was 125 yards back in 29:11.

Villanova won its first team championship with 79 points.

Kansas State was second with 155 points.

Lindgren, just 120 pounds and 5-foot-6, missed two weeks of training with two ankle sprains and was beaten by Smith just a week earlier in the league meet. But he worked hard last week and had no ankle trouble.

He sprinted to the front quickly and led all the way.

Midland Group Sets Basketball Sessions

Sunday night meetings will be launched by the Sideline Coaches Club of Midland for the basketball season, Frank D'Eramo, president, has announced.

Coach Henry Kuzma and his aides will screen films of each game and hold a question-and-answer period. Highlights of professional games also will be screened.

The sessions will start Sunday night at 7. Lou DiCiccio is chairman of the club's basketball program.

D'Eramo said reservations may be made until Dec. 1 for the football banquet Dec. 4.

Southern Cal Surprise Choice For Rose

Southern Teams Get Lion's Share Of Post-Season Bowl Attractions

By The Associated Press

The South, a reluctant bystander at last Saturday's Poll Bowl, has recouped, as expected, by grabbing the lion's share of college football's post-season prizes.

Five teams from the rugged Southeastern Conference and two powerful Dixie independents accepted bowl bids Monday as all but five berths in the eight major holiday attractions were filled.

This weekend, two Southwest Conference schools are expected to join the field, giving the southland at least nine of the 16 bowl spots.

Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia, Florida and Tennessee — all of the SEC — and independents Georgia Tech and Miami nailed bowl assignments Monday while the Pacific 8 Conference pulled a mild surprise by selecting Southern California as the host team in the Rose Bowl. Purdue and Syracuse had been named to the Rose and Gator Bowls, respectively, over the weekend.

The top game should be the Sugar Bowl confrontation between third - ranked Alabama and fourth-ranked Nebraska

If Alabama sidesteps an upset in its remaining two regular-season games and the Cornhuskers don't stumble against Oklahoma in their Thanksgiving Day windup, the New Orleans classic will offer the only pairings of perfect-record teams.

Georgia Tech, only other unbeaten and untied major team, meets Florida in the Orange Bowl at Miami the night of Jan. 2 after Southern California, the Pacific 8 king, and Purdue, the Big Ten runner-up, tangle in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif.

If Southern Methodist takes the Southwest Conference title by beating Texas Christian Saturday, the Mustangs will entertain Georgia in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas on Dec. 31. Tennessee takes on Syracuse in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., the same day.

Mississippi goes to the Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston on Dec. 17, where it probably will run into Arkansas of the SWC. Miami has filled half the bill at the Dec. 10 Liberty Bowl at Memphis Berths in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex., Dec. 24, are still wide open, with 12 schools in the running.

Southern California's nomination as the West Coast's Rose Bowl representative raised a few eyebrows. UCLA, which beat the Trojans last Saturday but finished one-half game behind them in Pacific 8 play, had been expected to get the call.

Co-Champ Miami Dominates Selection

2 B-G Gridders Repeat On All-MAC

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS Ohio (AP)—Two outstanding Bowling Green linemen won plaudits today landing berths on the All-Mid-American Conference football team for the third straight year.

Tabbed for the honors were Heath Wingate a 6-foot-2 225-pound center from Toledo and defensive end Jamie Rivers of Youngstown.

Fitzgerald leads the nation in rushing and last Saturday set a national record for the number of rushes. Socha was the conference's number two runner and Kozar the No. 4 rusher.

Among the players winning recognition a second straight year were Bowling Green's Mike Weger. Weger was a second team defensive choice on The Associated Press' 1965 All-America team.

Tackles—John Shafer, Miami, and Ken Carmon, Ohio University.

Center—Heath Wingate, Bowling Green.

Second Team

Ends — Ed Jones, Bowling Green, and Gary Crain, Western Michigan.

Tackles—Torre Ossmo, Western Michigan and Steve Tarle, Kent.

Center—Gene Hamilin, Western Michigan.

Ends—Bill Biggs Jr., Ohio U., and Dave Seiter, Bowling Green.

Middle guard — Dan Sopha, Western Michigan.

Doolittle's Named MAC Coach Of Year

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Western Michigan University's steady football progress under Coach Bill Doolittle — climaxed by the Mid-American Conference co-championship— has won Doolittle conference Coach of the Year honors for 1966.

Doolittle, a former Ohio State player and assistant coach at Army, said "even to be considered (for the award) is a thrill", after the MAC News Media Association voted him the award. He got we votes, runner-up Miami Coach Bo Schembechler three.

Western Michigan went into 1966 considered, at best, a dark-horse contender for the title. It tied Miami for the championship with a 5-1 conference mark and was 7-3 over-all.

Doolittle, a Mansfield native, went to Western Michigan three years ago from Army. His first Bronco team was 3-6 but the 1965 team was 6-2-1.

Barry Pours In 42 To Lead Frisco Win

San Francisco's Rick Barry, held to one point in the first quarter, scored 15 in each of the next two periods and 11 in the last for a total of 42 as San Francisco trounced St. Louis 134-117 at Nashville, Tenn., Monday night. It was the only National Basketball Association action.

Barry, the NBA scoring leader who entered the game with a 37.2 average, got plenty of help from Nate Thurmond and Al Attles, each scoring 26 points.

Hamilton, Mahurt Gain MAC Honors

Midland High grid star Rich Mahurt and head coach Joe Hamilton swept honors in the Midwestern Athletic Conference in 1966.

Mahurt tied with Beavers' Rick Skorupan as the most valuable player while Hamilton was named coach of the year in the MAC. Midland and Beaver tied for the title with 5-1 records.

Hamilton in his first year as a head coach turned in a 9-1 record, best mark in 14 years at Midland.

USC Grid Aide Sees Busy Time With Irish

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Southern California assistant coach Joe Margucci believes the Trojans will be a mighty busy football team Saturday.

He scouted Notre Dame, USC's opponent, last weekend when the Irish played Michigan State to a 10-10 tie.

"I tell you their size scares you," he said. "The Irish are so big they outclass the normal college team in size alone."

Notre Dame Noses Out MSU In Grid Poll By 3 Points

Parseghian Claims Team Deserves It

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ara Parseghian took it all in stride but Duffy Daugherty is beginning to feel persecuted.

Parseghian's Notre Dame football team edged out Daugherty's Michigan State club by a scant three points in this week's Associated Press college poll after they fought to a 10-10 tie last Saturday. It was one of the closest counts in the history of the poll.

"We were ranked No. 1 last week," Parseghian said on hearing the news, "and Michigan State didn't beat us, and I think we deserve to be on top again."

Daugherty, however, was not convinced.

"I would hope that as the writers take time to reflect," he said, "they would reward this great gang of Spartans for their great effort in the last two seasons."

"No one could be more worthy than this group that played like champions and fought right down to the wire."

This was the second year in a row that Michigan State has had its troubles with the poll. Last season, the Spartans were ranked first at the end of the regular season but were replaced by Alabama when they lost to UCLA, 14-12, in the Rose Bowl.

Notre Dame received 556 points in the poll to Michigan State's 553. The Irish had 23 first place votes to 13 for the Spartans with 14 ballots naming both teams in a tie for first place. Points are awarded on the basis of 10 for a first-place vote, nine for second, etc.

But Michigan State made the count close with 27 second-place votes against 15 for the Irish. Alabama was third with 467 points and eight first-place votes and Nebraska was fourth with 401 points and a lone first-place ballot.

The rest of the Top Ten were Georgia Tech fifth, UCLA sixth, Georgia seventh, Purdue eighth, Florida ninth and Southern California 10th.

Michigan State is through for the season but Notre Dame's hopes for continuing in first place depend on its meeting with Southern California Saturday in Los Angeles.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parenthesis, and total points:

1.	Notre Dame (37)	556
2.	Michigan State (27)	553
3.	Alabama (8)	467
4.	Nebraska (1)	401
5.	Georgia Tech	336
6.	UCLA	278
7.	Georgia	201
8.	Purdue	136
9.	Florida	99
10.	Southern California	62

NBA To Have 12-Club Loop In 1970-71

NEW YORK (AP) — There will be 12 teams in the National Basketball Association next season and 18 in 1970-71.

The expansion move was dictated by a heightened interest from cities desiring an NBA franchise and a professional market survey that revealed growing potential in many new cities for major league basketball, Commissioner Walter Kennedy said Monday at the loop's fall meeting.

The NBA, which expanded to 10 teams this season with the addition of Chicago, will add two more clubs in 1967-68 and two more for each of three seasons after that.

Kennedy listed, in alphabetical order, the cities under consideration for franchises:

"Under primary consideration for the first two franchises are Seattle, Pittsburgh, Cleveland and San Diego," Kennedy said.

In other action Monday, the playoff system was revised.

The first four teams in each of the five-club divisions will be eligible for the playoffs, with the first place team playing the third place team and the second meeting the fourth in best-of-5 series. The survivors will then meet in best-of-7 sets, and the division winners will play a best-of-7 for the league championship.

Before the addition of a 10th team, the first three finishers in each division made the playoffs.

Fitzgerald leads the nation in rushing and last Saturday set a national record for the number of rushes. Socha was the conference's number two runner and Kozar the No. 4 rusher.

Among the players winning recognition a second straight year were Bowling Green's Mike Weger. Weger was a second team defensive choice on The Associated Press' 1965 All-America team.

Kent State won five spots on the squad and Western Michigan, which shared the title with Miami, landed two players on the club.

Offense:

Tackles—John Shafer, Miami, and Ken Carmon, Ohio University.

Center—Heath Wingate, Bowling Green.

Middle guard—Tom Beutler, Toledo.

Backs—Mike Weger, Bowling Green; Bob Smith, Miami; Lou Harris, Kent and Dick Wagoner, Bowling Green.

Second Team

Ends — Ed Jones, Bowling Green, and Gary Crain, Western Michigan.

Center—Gene Hamilin, Western Michigan.

Middle guard — Dan Sopha, Western Michigan.

Doolittle's Named MAC Coach Of Year

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Western Michigan University's steady football progress under Coach Bill Doolittle — climaxed by the Mid-American Conference co-championship— has won Doolittle conference Coach of the Year honors for 1966.

Doolittle, a former Ohio State player and assistant coach at Army, said "even to be considered (for the award) is a thrill", after the MAC News Media Association voted him the award. He got we votes, runner-up Miami Coach Bo Schembechler three.

Western Michigan went into 1966 considered, at best, a dark-horse contender for the title. It tied Miami for the championship with a 5-1 conference mark and was 7-3 over-all.

Doolittle, a Mansfield native, went to Western Michigan three years ago from Army. His first Bronco team was 3-6 but the 1965 team was 6-2-1.

Barry Pours In 42 To Lead Frisco Win

San Francisco's Rick Barry, held to one point in the first quarter, scored 15 in each of the next two periods and 11 in the last for a total of 42 as San Francisco trounced St. Louis 134-117 at Nashville, Tenn., Monday night. It was the only National Basketball Association action.

Barry, the NBA scoring leader who entered the game with a 37.2 average, got plenty of help from Nate Thurmond and Al Attles, each scoring 26 points.

Hamilton, Mahurt Gain MAC Honors

Midland High grid star Rich Mahurt and head coach Joe Hamilton swept honors in the Midwestern Athletic Conference in 1966.

Mahurt tied with Beavers' Rick Skorupan as the most valuable player while Hamilton was named coach of the year in the MAC. Midland and Beaver tied for the title with 5-1 records.

Hamilton in his first year as a head coach turned in a 9-1 record, best mark in 14 years at Midland.

USC Grid Aide Sees Busy Time With Irish

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Southern California assistant coach Joe Marguccci believes the Trojans will be a mighty busy football team Saturday.

He scouted Notre Dame, USC's opponent, last weekend when the Irish played Michigan State to a 10-10 tie.

"I tell you their size scares you," he said. "The Irish are so big they outclass the normal college team in size alone."

Nicklaus Not To Play In Cajun Golf Classic

By BEN THOMAS

LAFAYETTE, La. (AP) — Sponsors of the Cajun Classic did just about everything but kidnap big Jack Nicklaus, but he said no, so the final official tournament on the PGA circuit will not have the two-time Masters champ in its 1966 field for the first time in three years.

The $34,200 Cajun Classic has doubled in size in less than five years.

Nicklaus captured the money crown from Arnold Palmer at the 1964 Cajun Classic and came back again last year, not winning, but pushing his earnings for the season to an all-time high.

"I'll always find some excuse to come back to Lafayette," said the Ohio strongboy at a party following the final 18 holes at last year's tourney.

"We promised him duck hunts, goose hunts and with results this year," said Frank Lee, tournament president.

"But he said he would be too tired after competing in the Canada Cup and the Houston Champions International. And, besides, he said he wanted to get home to Columbus, Ohio, to see his family.

Neither will Palmer be in the field.

Among those appearing here will be colorful Chi Chi Rodriguez and little Gardner Dickinson, the ex-LSU golfer who finished second behind Palmer in the Houston tourney Sunday.

Coach Gets 12-Foot Check For $1,360

The team's boosters gave Frazire a 12-foot-long check for $1,360 after the big season. They said it was for the coach to put in a savings account to help him get a master's degree.

"The people thought we should do something for Coach Frazier," said booster Ed Beveridge of the coach whose five-year record at the school is 44-3-3.

Barry Captures Free Throw Lead In NBA

NEW YORK (AP) — Rick Barry of San Francisco, who continues as top scorer, has taken over as free throw percentage leader in the National Basketball Association.

Barry has scored 663 points for a 37.2 average to 472 points and a 31.5 average for Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson in games through last Sunday, according to league statistics released today. The Warriors' star leads in free throw percentage with .381 and is eighth in field goal percentage with a .504

Pryor Named As OSU Most Valuable Player

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Senior Ray Pryor was named the Most Valuable Player of the 1966 Ohio State football team Monday night at the annual OSU football appreciation banquet. The center from Hamilton was an All-Big Ten selection last year.

Frank Robinson Due Knee Surgery Today

The 31-year-old slugger will have a cracked medio cartilege removed. He is expected to be hospitalized about a week before returning to his Los Angeles home.

Pennsylvania Eleven In Tangerine Bowl

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Westchester, Pa., State College has won a place in the Tangerine Bowl football game Dec. 10 opposing Morgan State College of Baltimore.

Ross Smith, athletic director at MIT and chairman of the NCAA College Division Football Committee, announced selection of Westchester Monday night. Morgan was chosen last week.

Team To Be Honored

The Dixonville football team of the Little League will be honored at a banquet Nov. 30 at Westgate cafeteria beginning at 6:30. The affair is being sponsored by the Mother Boosters Club.

Kentucky U. Again Choice In Cage Loop

Midwest and Southeast
By TED MEIER

NEW YORK (AP) — Kentucky, runner-up to Texas Western for the national collegiate basketball championship last season, once more is favored to win the Southeastern Conference in the college dribble season opening next week.

Western Kentucky and Cincinnati similarly are favored to repeat in the Ohio Valley and Missouri Valley Conferences, but Michigan and Kansas may be ousted as champions in the Big Ten and the Big Eight, respectively.

Michigan State and Illinois are expected to be the main contenders in the Big Ten. Nebraska is favored in the Big Eight. Elsewhere in the basketball talent-rich Midwest, Miami of Ohio likely will retain the Mid-American crown with Chicago Loyola and Oklahoma City again the best of the independents.

Adolph Rupp, Kentucky coach, has warned, "We aren't going to be as good as we were last year" when his Wildcats won 27 and lost only twice.

Still Kentucky has lost only Tom Kron and Larry Conley from last season. All-America Louie Dampier is back along with Pat Riley, Thad Jaracz, Bob Tallent, Tommy Porter and Cliff Berger. That means Vanderbilt, Florida, Tennessee and Mississippi State, expected to be strong contenders in the SEC, again will find Kentucky tough to handle.

Western Kentucky, which finished 10th in the final Associated Press poll last season, has back Clem Haskins and Dwight Smith and is expected to duplicate its 25-3 record of a year ago. Cincinnati has back John Howard, Dean Foster and Mike Rolf giving the Bearcats an edge over Louisville, Bradley, Wichita and St. Louis in the Missouri Valley.

Nebraska, the only team to beat Kansas in league play last year, again will have Nate Branch, Tom Baack and Stuart Lantz.

Football Banquet Held At Midland

Trophies were awarded 12 players and four cheerleaders graduating from the group. Ed DiCiccio received the high scholastic award.

The banquet was prepared and served by the St. Anthony Auxiliary.

Unbeaten Waynesburg Accepts Playoff Bid

Banquet Set Saturday

Over 200 reservations have been received for the banquet honoring the Glenmoor Rams football teams Saturday at the Glenmoor Fire Hall. The banquet is being sponsored by the Rams Boosters Club and those attending are requested to bring their own table service, Mrs. Donna Ketchum, announced.

Grantland Rice Bowl Bid Taken By Muskingum

NEW CONCORD, Ohio (AP) —Muskingum College has accepted an invitation to take its undefeated football team to the third annual Grantland Rice Bowl at Murfreesboro, Tenn., Dec. 10, it was announced Monday night.

Coach Ed Sherman's Muskies, co-champions of the Ohio Conference this season, will take a 9-0 season record and a 17-game winning streak into the bowl game, where they'll meet Tennessee State, also unbeaten this season.

Nicklaus Not To Play In Cajun Golf Classic

By BEN THOMAS

LAFAYETTE, La. (AP) — Sponsors of the Cajun Classic did just about everything but kidnap big Jack Nicklaus, but he said no, so the final official tournament on the PGA circuit will not have the two-time Masters champ in its 1966 field for the first time in three years.

The $34,200 Cajun Classic has doubled in size in less than five years.

This year's field will include 15 of the top 25 money winners on the tour. Play starts in the 72-hole, four-day affair Thursday at the superbly kept Oakbourne Country Club.

Nicklaus captured the money crown from Arnold Palmer at the 1964 Cajun Classic and came back again last year, not winning, but pushing his earnings for the season to an all-time high.

"I'll always find some excuse to come back to Lafayette," said the Ohio strongboy at a party following the final 18 holes at last year's tourney.

"We promised him duck hunts, goose hunts and with results this year," said Frank Lee, tournament president.

"But he said he would be too tired after competing in the Canada Cup and the Houston Champions International. And, besides, he said he wanted to get home to Columbus, Ohio, to see his family.

"We even offered to bring his family down here," said Lee, sadly.

Neither will Palmer be in the field.

Among those appearing here will be colorful Chi Chi Rodriguez and little Gardner Dickinson, the ex-LSU golfer who finished second behind Palmer in the Houston tourney Sunday.

The team's boosters gave Frazire a 12-foot-long check for $1,360 after the big season. They said it was for the coach to put in a savings account to help him get a master's degree.

"The people thought we should do something for Coach Frazier," said booster Ed Beveridge of the coach whose five-year record at the school is 44-3-3.

Barry Captures Free Throw Lead In NBA

NEW YORK (AP) — Rick Barry of San Francisco, who continues as top scorer, has taken over as free throw percentage leader in the National Basketball Association.

Barry has scored 663 points for a 37.2 average to 472 points and a 31.5 average for Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson in games through last Sunday, according to league statistics released today. The Warriors' star leads in free throw percentage with 381 and is eighth in field goal percentage with a .504

Pryor Named As OSU Most Valuable Player

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Senior Ray Pryor was named the Most Valuable Player of the 1966 Ohio State football team Monday night at the annual OSU football appreciation banquet. The center from Hamilton was an All-Big Ten selection last year.

Frank Robinson Due Knee Surgery Today

The 31-year-old slugger will have a cracked medio cartilege removed. He is expected to be hospitalized about a week before returning to his Los Angeles home.

Pennsylvania Eleven In Tangerine Bowl

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Westchester, Pa., State College has won a place in the Tangerine Bowl football game Dec. 10 opposing Morgan State College of Baltimore.

Ross Smith, athletic director at MIT and chairman of the NCAA College Division Football Committee, announced selection of Westchester Monday night. Morgan was chosen last week.

Team To Be Honored

The Dixonville football team of the Little League will be honored at a banquet Nov. 30 at Westgate cafeteria beginning at 6:30. The affair is being sponsored by the Mother Boosters Club.

Kentucky U. Again Choice In Cage Loop

By TED MEIER

NEW YORK (AP) — Kentucky, runner-up to Texas Western for the national collegiate basketball championship last season, once more is favored to win the Southeastern Conference in the college dribble season opening next week.

Western Kentucky and Cincinnati similarly are favored to repeat in the Ohio Valley and Missouri Valley Conferences, but Michigan and Kansas may be ousted as champions in the Big Ten and the Big Eight, respectively.

Michigan State and Illinois are expected to be the main contenders in the Big Ten. Nebraska is favored in the Big Eight. Elsewhere in the basketball talent-rich Midwest, Miami of Ohio likely will retain the Mid-American crown with Chicago Loyola and Oklahoma City again the best of the independents.

Adolph Rupp, Kentucky coach, has warned, "We aren't going to be as good as we were last year" when his Wildcats won 27 and lost only twice.

Still Kentucky has lost only Tom Kron and Larry Conley from last season. All-America Louie Dampier is back along with Pat Riley, Thad Jaracz, Bob Tallent, Tommy Porter and Cliff Berger. That means Vanderbilt, Florida, Tennessee and Mississippi State, expected to be strong contenders in the SEC, again will find Kentucky tough to handle.

Western Kentucky, which finished 10th in the final Associated Press poll last season, has back Clem Haskins and Dwight Smith and is expected to duplicate its 25-3 record of a year ago. Cincinnati has back John Howard, Dean Foster and Mike Rolf giving the Bearcats an edge over Louisville, Bradley, Wichita and St. Louis in the Missouri Valley.

Nebraska, the only team to beat Kansas in league play last year, again will have Nate Branch, Tom Baack and Stuart Lantz.

Football Banquet Held At Midland

Lester Trainer was master of ceremonies. Ninety-six attended.

Trophies were awarded 12 players and four cheerleaders graduating from the group. Ed DiCiccio received the high scholastic award.

The banquet was prepared and served by the St. Anthony Auxiliary.

Unbeaten Waynesburg Accepts Playoff Bid

Banquet Set Saturday

Over 200 reservations have been received for the banquet honoring the Glenmoor Rams football teams Saturday at the Glenmoor Fire Hall. The banquet is being sponsored by the Rams Boosters Club and those attending are requested to bring their own table service, Mrs. Donna Ketchum, announced.

Grantland Rice Bowl Bid Taken By Muskingum

NEW CONCORD, Ohio (AP) —Muskingum College has accepted an invitation to take its undefeated football team to the third annual Grantland Rice Bowl at Murfreesboro, Tenn., Dec. 10, it was announced Monday night.

Coach Ed Sherman's Muskies, co-champions of the Ohio Conference this season, will take a 9-0 season record and a 17-game winning streak into the bowl game, where they'll meet Tennessee State, also unbeaten this season.

Ex-Vice President Garner 98 Today

UVALDE, Tex. (AP) — Former Vice President John Nance Garner is 98 years old today. He says it's just "another birthday" and confides that the one he really is looking forward to is No. 100.

"Yessir," said Cactus Jack in a brief interview Monday, "I'm going to be 98 on November 22."

He was Vice President in Franklin D. Roosevelt's first two terms in the presidency, from 1932 through 1940.

3 More From Ohio Killed In Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — The list of U.S. servicemen from Ohio killed in the Viet Nam war grew by three with announcements Monday by the Defense Department.

The latest reported Ohio casualties were Army Spec. 4 Roger D. Ruoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale O. Ruoff of Wauseon; Army Sgt. 1.C. Arthur Glidden, whose widow lives in Cincinnati; and Marine Pfc. Robert E. Strahm, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Blue, Kenton.

Killed By Train

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP)—A freight train struck a Mansfield man near here Monday and the victim, Ernest L. Burke, 50, died soon after in a hospital, the sheriff's office reported.

LEGAL NOTICES

ORDINANCE NUMBER 46, 1966.

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING THE CODE OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL BY ADDING SECTION 535-2 AND 535-3 PROVIDING FOR THE CUTTING OF NOXIOUS WEEDS AND GRASS.

WHEREAS, weeds and grass have been permitted to grow on lands within the city to such an extent that the same have become injurious to the health of individuals during seeding time; and

WHEREAS, this Council is of the opinion that the same should be controlled in order to prevent such injury;

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That the Code of the City of East Liverpool be amended by adding Section 535-2, and 535-3 which sections are hereby ordained to read as follows:

Section 535-2 — Height of Weeds and Grass; Duty to Cut.

No owner, lessee, agent or tenant of land shall permit weeds or grass to grow thereon at a height exceeding eighteen inches. Any person above described who fails to keep such weeds of grass cut in conformity with this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $50.00. Each days violation or each repeated violation by the same person shall constitute a separate offense.

Section 535-3 — Cutting and/or Destruction of Noxious Weeds.

Upon written information that noxious weeds are growing on lands within the city, and are about to spread and mature seeds, Council shall cause a written notice to be served upon the owner, lessee, agent or tenant, having charge of such lands, notifying him that noxious weeds are growing on such lands and that they must be cut and destroyed within five days after service of such notice. If the owner or other person having charge of such land is a non-resident whose address is known, such notice shall be sent to his address by registered mail. If the address of such owner is unknown, it shall be sufficient to publish such notice once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county.

Any police officer, clerk or deputy clerk of Council may make service and return of the notice above provided.

If the owner, lessee, agent or tenant having charge of the lands fails to comply with said notice, then Council, shall cause said weeds to be cut and destroyed and may employ the necessary labor to perform such task. All expenses incurred shall, when approved by Council, be paid out on any money in the City Treasury, not otherwise appropriated.

Council shall make a written return to the County Auditor of its action hereunder with a statement of the charges for its services, the amount paid for the performing of such labor, the fees of the officers who made the service of such notice and return, and a proper description of the premises. Such amounts when allowed, shall be entered upon the tax duplicate, shall be a lien upon such lands from the date of the entry, and shall be collected as other taxes and returned to the municipal corporation with the general fund.

SECTION 2. That this ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and shall take effect upon passage and approval. Said emergency lies in the fact that the season of tall grass and noxious weeds is now here and effects of health of the citizens and this action is therefore necessary to preserve the public peace, health and safety of said city.

Passed this 14th day of November, 1966.

ERNEST A. LOWE
President of Council

BETTY J. BERG
Clerk of Council

Ex-Vice President Garner 98 Today

UVALDE, Tex. (AP) — Former Vice President John Nance Garner is 98 years old today. He says it's just "another birthday" and confides that the one he really is looking forward to is No. 100.

"Yessir," said Cactus Jack in a brief interview Monday, "I'm going to be 98 on November 22."

He was Vice President in Franklin D. Roosevelt's first two terms in the presidency, from 1932 through 1940.

3 More From Ohio Killed In Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — The list of U.S. servicemen from Ohio killed in the Viet Nam war grew by three with announcements Monday by the Defense Department.

The latest reported Ohio casualties were Army Spec. 4 Roger D. Ruoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale O. Ruoff of Wauseon; Army Sgt. 1.C. Arthur Glidden, whose widow lives in Cincinnati; and Marine Pfc. Robert E. Strahm, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Blue, Kenton.

Killed By Train

LEGAL NOTICES

ORDINANCE NUMBER 46, 1966.

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING THE CODE OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL BY ADDING SECTION 535-2 AND 535-3 PROVIDING FOR THE CUTTING OF NOXIOUS WEEDS AND GRASS.

WHEREAS, weeds and grass have been permitted to grow on lands within the city to such an extent that the same have become injurious to the health of individuals during seeding time; and

WHEREAS, this Council is of the opinion that the same should be controlled in order to prevent such injury;

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That the Code of the City of East Liverpool be amended by adding Section 535-2, and 535-3 which sections are hereby ordained to read as follows:

Section 535-2 — Height of Weeds and Grass; Duty to Cut.

No owner, lessee, agent or tenant of land shall permit weeds or grass to grow thereon at a height exceeding eighteen inches. Any person above described who fails to keep such weeds of grass cut in conformity with this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $50.00. Each days violation or each repeated violation by the same person shall constitute a separate offense.

Section 535-3 — Cutting and/or Destruction of Noxious Weeds.

Upon written information that noxious weeds are growing on lands within the city, and are about to spread and mature seeds, Council shall cause a written notice to be served upon the owner, lessee, agent or tenant, having charge of such lands, notifying him that noxious weeds are growing on such lands and that they must be cut and destroyed within five days after service of such notice. If the owner or other person having charge of such land is a non-resident whose address is known, such notice shall be sent to his address by registered mail. If the address of such owner is unknown, it shall be sufficient to publish such notice once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county.

Any police officer, clerk or deputy clerk of Council may make service and return of the notice above provided.

If the owner, lessee, agent or tenant having charge of the lands fails to comply with said notice, then Council, shall cause said weeds to be cut and destroyed and may employ the necessary labor to perform such task. All expenses incurred shall, when approved by Council, be paid out on any money in the City Treasury, not otherwise appropriated.

Council shall make a written return to the County Auditor of its action hereunder with a statement of the charges for its services, the amount paid for the performing of such labor, the fees of the officers who made the service of such notice and return, and a proper description of the premises. Such amounts when allowed, shall be entered upon the tax duplicate, shall be a lien upon such lands from the date of the entry, and shall be collected as other taxes and returned to the municipal corporation with the general fund.

SECTION 2. That this ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and shall take effect upon passage and approval. Said emergency lies in the fact that the season of tall grass and noxious weeds is now here and effects of health of the citizens and this action is therefore necessary to preserve the public peace, health and safety of said city.

Passed this 14th day of November, 1966.

ERNEST A. LOWE
President of Council

BETTY J. BERG
Clerk of Council

GEORGE E. WILLSHAW
MAYOR

E. L. Review: Nov. 22, 29, 1966.

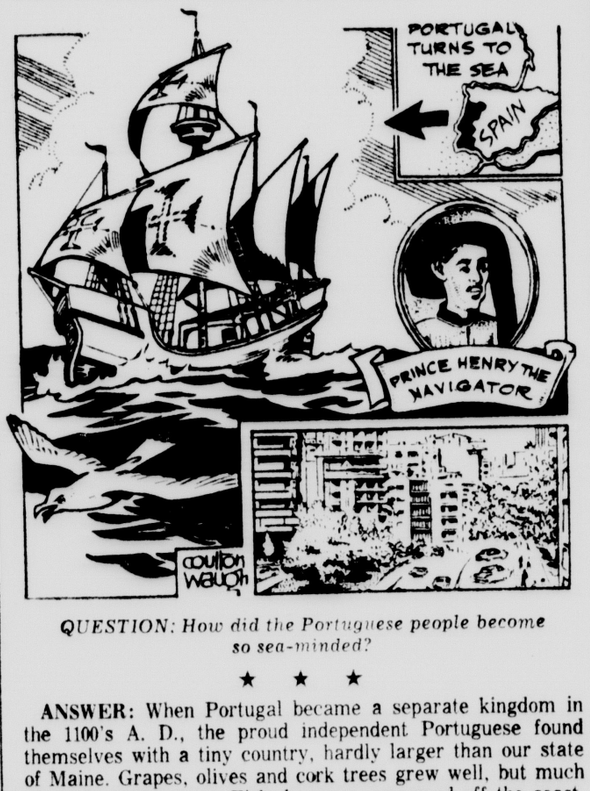
Junior Editors Quiz on PORTUGUESE



QUESTION: How did the Portuguese people become so sea-minded?

ANSWER: When Portugal became a separate kingdom in the 1100's A. D., the proud independent Portuguese found themselves with a tiny country, hardly larger than our state of Maine. Grapes, olives and cork trees grew well, but much of the land was poor. Fish, however, swarmed off the coast, so it was natural that the Portuguese should become sea-minded. A man of remarkable vision, Prince Henry the Navigator, took this seafaring interest and directed Portugal toward real greatness. He established a center for the study of discovery at Sagres, outfitted ships, and sent them out into the unknown (this was before Columbus). Portuguese captains discovered the Cape of Good Hope, rounded Africa and reached India. Portugal established many colonies, became an important world power. But with the 1500's, Portugal's power declined. A purge of Jews weakened the country; a number of overseas colonies were lost. Portugal could not compete with the great powers and clung to old-fashioned ways. But in 1953, the country began a modernization program, symbolized at lower right. Another bright chapter in her history may lie ahead.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Tuesday, Nov. 22, the 326th day of 1966. There are 39 days left in the year.

On this date in 1963, an assassin's bullet took the life of President John F. Kennedy. This as the president, seated in an open-top limousine, waved to crowds that had gathered along the route of his motorcade in Dallas, Tex.

On this date:

In 1943, the Roosevelt-Churchill-Chiang Kai-shek conference opened in Cairo.

Also in 1943, a giant armada of British bombers attacked the German capital-Berlin.

Ten years ago—The Yugoslav government said the ex-Hungarian Premier Imre Nagy, who had led an abortive uprising against Soviet domination of his homeland, had left the Yugoslav Embassy in Budapest where he had taken political asylum. It was feared Soviet police had kidnapped him.

Five years ago — President Kennedy and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer completed three days of talks in Washington on Berlin crisis.

One year ago—The Labor Department announced that striking McDonnell Aircraft Corp. machinists had agreed to go back to work at Cape Kennedy to avoid delaying the scheduled Dec. 4 Gemini space launch.

Cincinnati's Bid Seen Low On City Bonds

A Cincinnati investment house submitted the lowest of four bids Monday afternoon when Auditor Lawrence J. Zollinger opened sealed offers on sale of two municipal bond issues totaling $225,000.

Pohl & Co., Inc., offered to buy the 25-year bonds at a 4½ per cent interest rate. It offered a $210 premium on $100,000 issue and a $262 premium on a $125,000 issue.

McDonald & Co., a Cleveland investment house, also offered a 4½ per cent rate, but proffered a premium of only $169.

The other offers were: Fahey, Clark & Co. of Cleveland, a 4¾ per cent rate and a premium of $1,003, and Prescott and Co., also of Cleveland, a 4⅞ per cent rate and a premium of $181.

In both instances, the funds derived from the sale of the bonds will be used to retire notes previously issued for short-term financing.

The $125,000 issue represents the city's cost in acquiring property and constructing two new off-street parking facilities—the so-called Laughlin lot on W. 5th St. near Jackson St. and the Ceramic Annex lot on E. 4th St. The expense at the two sites included acquisition of the property, razing of buildings, surfacing the area, installation of meters and other incidental expenses.

The $100,000 issue represents the city's investment in the former carbarn property on Pennsylvania Ave. The buildings and ground were acquired in August, primarily for use as a new garage and storage facility for the street department. The city paid $95,000 for the property and spent $5,000 more readying it for use.

Council enacted legislation Monday night confirming the sale of the bonds to the Cincinnati firm.

The procedure followed in the sale of the bonds is standard in major municipal projects. The city first borrows money on short - term notes to cover the cost, then issues bonds to retire the notes and amortize the debt over a long period of years. The off - street parking lot bonds will be amortized by proceeds from parking meters.

2 Candidates List Expense

Two men who won posts in the Nov. 8 general election have filed the required sworn statements of campaign expenses with the County Election Board.

County Auditor Kenneth Bell of Wellsville a Democrat named to a new term, said his expenditures totaled $1,458.56.

Charles J. Gause of Hanoverton R. D. 1, a Republican elected to an unexpired term as county commissioner, reported expenses of $1,374.27. Gause will serve until Jan. 5, 1969, in the unexpired term of the late Frank C. Wilson.

Dec. 23 at 4 p. m. is the deadline for submitting the reports, which are required of all candidates, whether or not they were successful, and from committees which supported or opposed any candidate or issue.

Candidates and committees must list any receipts and their sources as well as itemizing expenditures. If the campaign fund wound up with a balance, it must be reported, as well as the intended disposition of the money.

State law bars the Election Board from issuing a certificate of election to any winner who fails to file the report. In addition, any person who fails to file an expense report is barred by law from seeking any public office for a minimum of five years.

Area Man Made 2nd Lieutenant

Thomas H. Lemasters of Ft. Benning, Ga., son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lemasters of 1005 Grant St., Newell, has been commissioned a second lieutenant with the Army.

He was a 1963 graduate of Newell High School and attended West Liberty State College for two years, where he majored in business administration.

Lt. Lemasters entered the Army in December 1965. He is on a 14-day leave, here, after which he will report to Ft. Benning for a new assignment.

Ohio Pine Trees Will Be Featured At White House

WASHINGTON — Pine trees harvested from the property of an eastern Ohio coal company will be featured in the White House Christmas Pageant of Peace this year.

Fifty - three uniformly-shaped Scotch pines, representing the 50 states of the Union and the three territories, will be donated through the cooperative effort of the American Mining Congress and the Hanna Coal Co.

The mining congress is the nationwide voice of the mining industry, with headquarters in Washington. Hanna Coal conducts extensive surface mining operations in Ohio's Harrison and Belmont counties and tree plantings have played an important role in the firm's program of land reclamation and restoration over the past 25 years.

James Reilly, president of Hanna, and J. Allen Overton Jr., executive vice president of the AMC, made the announcement of the tree selections from Cadiz, Ohio, where the coal company annually reclaims 1,200 to 1,400 acres of land.

The trees destined for Washington will be harvested by Hanna employes and shipped early in December to the nation's capital by truck.

District Youth Fined After 2-Way Collision

Ronald L. Crabtree, 19, of Glenmoor was fined $15 and costs Monday in Municipal Court on charges filed by police as an aftermath of a two - way collision Sunday night on W. 3rd St. at Market St.

Crabtree pleaded guilty to a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance. He was cited by Patrolman David K. Mumaw after his 1955 two - door sedan struck the rear of an auto by Ernie K. Plum, 47, of Lisbon R. D. 3, which was halted for a traffic signal at the intersection.

Norvell Slated To Start Term In Ambush Slaying

HERNANDO, Miss. (AP) — Aubrey James Norvell is scheduled to surrender to authorities here Dec. 2 to begin serving a penitentiary term for the ambush shooting of civil rights leader James H. Meredith last June.

The former hardware salesman from Memphis was sentenced to five years, with three years suspended, after entering a surprise plea of guilty Monday to a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill. He is free under $25,000 bond.

Norvell pleaded innocent at his arraignment last Friday and trial was scheduled for today. His new plea came after his attorneys lost several motions to have indictments quashed.

Norvell, 40, was arrested June 6, minutes after Meredith, the man who integrated the University of Mississippi amid bloodshed in 1962, was peppered with birdshot on the second day of his "march against fear" in Mississippi.

Mr. Mitchell is one of our "storekeepers." Like all of them, he knows that people come to the money store to save money or to borrow it. Either reason, he's happy to see you because we're in business to say yes. If you don't believe it, just put us to the test. Come in, tell us how much you need and what you can afford to pay back each month. For example, if you borrow $1600 you pay back only $60.09 a month. It's as easy as that and it should be — because the money store's job is to make borrowing money and paying it back easier for you. How much do you need to meet tomorrow? And what time today do you want your money?
